June 16. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas de Seton, Peter de Westminster. Richemond and William de Presfen, on complaint by Robert de Angerton, Adam Whiteved, Andrew de Kelshowe, Robert de Ingel-wode, John de Muston and Ellis del Clay, merchants of Newcastle upon-Tyne, that, whereas a ship called la Cristofre, of which Victorius de Flemmyngport was master, laden at Lescluse in Flanders with their goods and merchandise, on its voyage to Newcastle upon Tyne was driven ashore and broken by a storm at sea near Scardeburgh, co. York, and their goods were cast on shore, the master and all others in the ship coming to land alive, Robert Rightwys, Robert Fitz Robert, William Swynard, Robert de Manby, Robert Acclom, John Acclom, John Colman, Richard Colman, Richard del Castell, Simon Jowyn, John Wawayn, Thomas Kempe, William de Manby, Henry de Ruston and others, carried away the said goods and merchandise.

July 2. The like to Henry de Motelowe, Walter de Hopton and William Westminster. Banastre of Hadenhale, on information that Hugh Carles, Henry, servant of the said Hugh, William de Ideshale, parson of the church of Arleye super Severne, Henry, vicar of the church of Albryghton, and others, came armed, at Albryghton, co. Salop, and imprisoned Lewis de Cherleton, William de Cherleton and Thomas de Bisshebury, and that they are now vagabonds in the said county perpetrating many trespasses and damages to other of the king's lieges.

July 7. The like to the said Henry and Walter and Thomas de Lodelowe, Westminster. touching the armed evildoers who lately at Shrewsbury, co. Salop, entered by force the abbey of St. Peter there, of the king's patronage and of the foundation of his progenitors, which is under his special protection, abducted Roger de Umfreston, fellow-monk of the abbot, against the will of the abbot, and carried away goods there, and now run to and fro threatening to do the abbot and his monks and servants all the evil that they can, whereby these dare not go forth from the abbey to survey the manors and lands and the goods and things in them and elsewhere, or to make their other profit, without a great armed force to save their life, and the goods whereof they should live and serve God and support pious works according to the burden laid upon them by the king's progenitors are wasted.
