1858.

MEMBRANE 33—cont.

July 16. Appointment of Alexander de Dalby, clerk, and Henry de Brisele to take in the city of London and the suburbs carpenters, masons and other workmen for the repairs of the houses ordained for the works of the king's money (monede) in the Tower of London and put them to the work to stay therein at the king's wages so long as shall be necessary; taking and imprisoning any found contrariant or rebellious in this behalf.

By K. & C.

July 14. Grant to the prioress and sisters of the house of the order of the Preachers of Dertford, founded by the king for the sustenance of fourteen sisters and six friars and their servants, of 200 marks at the exchequer yearly, to wit 10 marks for each sister and friar, to be taken by the prioress and sisters and their successors for ever or until the king order otherwise.

By p.s.

July 14. Grant, for the sincere affection which the king has for the present prioress and the three sisters who first came with her from beyond seas to England to dwell in the said house, of 20 marks beyond the portion which pertains to them of the 200 marks granted in the preceding letters, to wit to each of them 5 marks yearly to be taken at the exchequer as a gift from the king.

By p.s.

July 28. Presentation of John Beaufeny to the church of Alwaldby, in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of Ellis de Thoresby and in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Ravendale being in his hands on account of the war with France.

By p.s.

June 8. Protection and safe conduct, for two years, for Gilbert de Duxfeld, Robert de Duxfeld, John del Chaumbro, Richard de Stanhop, John de Stanhop, John de Refham, John de Eyghton and John Suyard, of Newcastle upon Tyne, and John de Gesbourn of York, and their servants, going to Scotland to buy wools, hides, wool-fells and other merchandise to bring to England or other foreign parts of his friendship to sell and make their profit in other ways.

By K.

July 6. Notification that although the king lately presented John de Leek, king's clerk, to the church of Yerdele Hastynge as in his gift by reason of his wardship of the heir of Laurence de Hastynge late earl of Pembroke, tenant in chief, and the said John was instituted and the church has again fallen void by his resignation, yet because by inspection of the rolls of chancery the king has learned that before the first voidance the advowson of the said church had been with other advowsons of churches of the earl assigned in dower to Agnes late his wife, he has seen fit to revoke his said presentation.

By p.s.

July 14. Presentation of Thomas Cobbyld, parson of the church of Brembre, in the diocese of Chichester, to the church of Pyperharwe, in the diocese of Winchester, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the lands and heir of Andrew Branche, tenant in chief, on an exchange of benefices with Richard Snithenham.

By p.s.

July 12. Pardon to Hugh de Elmeshale of Doncastre of his outlawries in the county of York for non-appearance before the justices of the