of his father, mother and ancestors; and for the appropriation of the church by the abbot and convent.

And the 10l. have been paid in the hanaper.

July 1. Appointment, for life, of Geoffrey de Carleton, mason, as keeper Westminster. of the king's works of masonry in the castle of Wyndesore, taking for his wages 6d. a day, and for his robe and shoe-leather 20s. a year, by the hands of the constable of the castle. By p.s.

July 10. Nicholas de Bathe, constable of the new castle of Makyngham, Westminster. has made supplication that whereas the said castle which is situated in a perilous place on the frontier of the king's Irish enemies was committed to his keeping by the chancellor and the treasurer of Ireland at a time when no other would undertake the keeping, and he has kept it well and faithfully, the king will ratify the estate which he thus holds in the keeping and the king, having regard to his good bearing and the constancy of his fidelity which he shewed when he could have saved two of his brothers who were brought by the said enemies before the castle and there beheaded if he would have surrendered that castle into the hands of the king's enemies, as the king has learned by trustworthy testimony, grants that he shall have the keeping of the castle during good behaviour, taking yearly for the same as he has been accustomed to do. By K. & C.

July 8. Pardon to Roger de Hille, 'werkmon,' of the king's suit for the death of Roger le Herde, 'cardemakore'; as the king has learned by the record of Henry Grene and William de Skipwith, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of Coventre, that he killed him in self defence.

July 9. Pardon to John de Staunton of the king's suit for the death of Westminster. John de la Hethe, knight, and of any consequent outlawry: because Roger de Mortuo Mari, earl of March, and John Chaundos have testified that Thomas de la Hethe, brother of the said knight, and the said John de Staunton are agreed touching a debate there was between them on account of the said death that the latter is not guilty thereof. By p.s.

June 1. On the petition of Tho:mas son and heir of John Dengaigne of Westminster. Dilyngton shewing that because it was presented before William de Otteford, escahot in the county of Huntingdon, that the said John, to whom the king committed at farm the keeping of the manor of Lemyng in that county during the nonage of the heir of Laurence de Hastynges, late earl of Pembroke, did waste, sale and destruction of houses and woods of the manor to the amount of 40l. he has been distressed to pay the said 40l. to the king's use, the king has pardoned whatever pertains to him by reason of the said waste, sale and destruction. By K.

June 30. Grant, for life or until other order, to John de Hynton, yeoman Westminster. of the king's daughter Elizabeth, countess of Ulster, of an annuity of 10l. at the exchequer. By p.s.

June 26. Grant for life, by the advice and assent of the council, to the king's Westminster. consort Queen Philippa, beyond the lands already assigned to her in