

1359.

Membrane 1—cont.

town of Bristol and all places thence to Bruggewauter on one side and Gloucestre on the other, and at Gloucestre. [Fœdera.]

By the guardian & C.

The like commission have Thomas Deye and Martin Haaf in the port of Lostwithiel and in the port of Fowey, which are one and the same port, as the king is informed.

Jan. 13. Notification that Ralph Spigurnell, 'chivaler,' John de Bukyngham, Westminster. 'dean' of Lichfield, David de Wollore and John de Codyngton, clerks of the chancery, sent by the council to view the state of Denys de Morbek, 'chivaler,' lying sick in the city of London, signify that on 10 January they and others of the council came to his lodging in a street by the church called Berkyng Chapelle and found him in bed very ill and like to die, so that he could not come to the king touching an appeal against him by Bernard de Troie, esquire, of Gascony, in respect of the taking of the king of France at the battle of Poitiers; and Master John Paladyn, mire, and John de Cornhull, surgeon, swore on the Gospels that he was too weak to come. French. [Fœdera.]

Jan. 18. Acceptance of the election by the mayor, sheriffs and aldermen Reading. of London, with the assent of the commonalty, of Thomas de Pykenham and Thomas atte Cornerth, merchants of the said city, to levy the subsidy of 6*d.* of the pound on merchandise in the city and port of London. [Fœdera.]

By the guardian & C.

Jan. 22. The like of the election by the mayor and bailiffs of Plummuth of Reading. Simon Boghrewre and Humphrey Passour, merchants of the town, to be collectors of the same in that town and port, to wit between Penlegh and Yealmp and in the waters of Tamer and Plym, as the mayor and sheriffs of London, receivers of the subsidy throughout England, have verbally certified the king in the chancery.

By the guardian & C.

The like of the election of William de Spayne and Frederick de Tylneye as collectors in the town and port of Boston.

MEMBRANE 21d.

[Patents following witnessed by the king.]

Oct. 6. Commission to the chancellor of the university of Oxford, his vice- Westminster. gerent, and the mayor of Oxford, to be justices to keep the ordinance and statute of labourers, made in the late council and Parliament at Westminster, in the town and suburbs of Oxford, and to hear and determine trespasses against the same; saving the right of the chancellor.

Sept. 15. Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Notton, William Westminster. de Fifhide, Richard Lenglissh, Robert de Bilknap and Henry de Kerseye, in the county of Berks, touching treasons, homicides, robberies, felonies, trespasses, conspiracies, confederacies, oppressions, extortions, alliances, unjust maintainings, champerties, embraceries, forestalleries, falsities, damages, grievances and excesses, against the king and his people.

By K.

Oct. 19. The like to William de Notton, John de la Lee, Henry de Kerseye, Sandwich. John de Gosebourn and Thomas de Harcheregge, in the county of Kent,