in the present council summoned on Wednesday before the feast of St. Cuthbert last at Leycestre to levy the moiety of the tenth and fifteenth, granted to the king in that council, in the duchy, to be appointed by his letters patent to levy the same, to deposit the money in Burscogh priory.

By the guardian & C.

MEMBRANE 23.

Commission to John Russel of Naburn and John de Surfllet, reciting that, whereas the commonalties of the counties of York, Northumberland, Cumberland and Westmoreland and of the cities and boroughs of those counties who came to the king's council summoned on Monday the morrow of the Close of Easter at York granted the king a tenth and fifteenth to be levied (as above), the king has appointed them to levy a moiety of the same in the wapentake between Ouse and Derwent, co. York, to be kept in their hands, unless necessity arise to expend it (as above).

By the guardian & C.

In like manner the following are appointed:

Stephen Cecill and John de Yukflet, in the liberty of Houeden, co. York.
Thomas de Lellai, John de Wilton and John de Vere, in the liberty of Holdernesse, co. York.
Ralph Tourny, Thomas de Carethorpe and John de Speton, in the wapentake of Dykeryng, co. York.
Thomas Chauncy and John de Midelton, in the wapentake of Bukcrosse, co. York.
John de Wodhalle and John de Tothill, in the wapentake of Strafford and Tikhill, co. York.
John de Rotheresfeld and John de Shirwode, in the wapentake of Osogtacrosse, co. York.
John de Amyas, Adam de Hopton, Thomas Dautre and John Malet, in the wapentake of Agbrigg and Morlay, co. York.
William de Raygate and William de Berlay, in the wapentake of Barston and Skirak, co. York.
Godfrey Dautre, Thomas Sotheren, Robert de Staynford and Thomas de Clapham, in the wapentake of Staynclif and Yocrosse, co. York.
John Chaumont and John Dayvill, in the wapentake of Clarhowe and Aynsti, co. York.
John de Multon, John de Romundby and John de Stapilton, in the wapentake of Brudford and the liberties of Allerton and Beghland, co. York.
Robert de Flaynburgh and John Cokes of Hovynghame, in the wapentake of Rydale, co. York.