Membrane 18—cont.

May 18. Appointment of the masters of the ships called la James, la Blithe and la nouvelle nief de Piers Rede of Dover to go to Calais to receive goods and things of the king’s there and bring them with certain persons of the household of Roger de Mortuo Mari, late earl of March, to the king in England.

May 4. Inspeexus and confirmation of letters (in French) of John de Moubray of Axiholm, dated at his manor of Eppeworth, 7 August, 33 Edward III, granting for life to William de Nesefeld the chief (sovereigne) keeping and survey of his warrens and free chases of Kyrkeby Malasard and Niderdale, with full power to remove unprofitable ministers and put others in their place, taking yearly 100s. and a robe, or 20s. in lieu thereof, out of the manor of Kyrkeby Malasard, recoverable by distress if ever in arrear.

For 20s. paid in the hanaper.

April 25. Grant to the bailiffs and good men of Bristol of quayage for four years.

Grant to them of murage and pavage for five years.

By K.

May 8. Presentation of Thomas de Keynes to the church of Marteleye, in the diocese of Worcester, in the king’s gift by reason of the priory of Newent being in his hands on account of the war with France.

May 6. Whereas by a certificate of William de Nesefeld, escheator in the county of Northumberland, it is found that all lands late of William Whitelawe, William Eme of Newebiggyng, Roger son of Ralph, William son of John de Newebiggyng, John Thorald, Ivo Shoute, Henry Bat, John Colyn and Robert Shout of Newebiggyng, in Newebiggyng, Lynemuth, Hereford and Crumlyngton, and all lands late of John de Useworth, Walter de Clifton, Robert son of Alice, Robert son of Hugh de Langewutton, William de Echewyk, Thomas de Bradeford, William de Leghtone and David de Bicheburn, in Caldeeton in Redesdale, West Wodburn, Langewutton, Echewyk, Haukwell, Greneleghton, Caldebrother, Bradeford and Ingewe, and of Richard de Morpath, William Boule, Peter de la Lewe, Thomas de Caphope and John Pantil and Constance his wife, in Morpath and Heppescotes, have been taken into the king’s hand as escheats because the said persons were adherents of Gilbert de Middelton, traitor to the late king, and of the Scots, the king, for good service done by Thomas de Bretteby, who has acquired the lands, as is said, in the wars of Scotland and elsewhere, in recompense of his losses sustained on account of the wars and for 20l. to be paid to the king by him, has granted to him in fee the said lands, with the rents and services, to hold by the services due before the escheat with the issues received in the past, remitting all claim the king or his heirs could have to these.

By the guardian & C.

May 5. Pardon, for 40s. paid to the king by Richard de Dofxford, son and heir of Adam de Dofxford, who held lands in Framlyngton of the heir of David de Strabolgi, late earl of Atholl, then under age and in the king’s ward, and held of others lands in Dofxford, to him for entering into the lands without livery thereof having been obtained.