1861.

Membrane 2—cont.
the lands appointed by the king, and keep in repair the houses and buildings of the lands; saving to the king knights' fees and advowsons.

Mandate to John Gour, steward of said lands, to be intendant to her in respect of the farms, rents and issues thereof.

The like to Arnold Pynken, receiver of the farms and profits of the lands.

April 3. John Mau Travers, 'chivaler,' staying in England, has letters Westminster. nominating Roger Mau Travers and William Dulre as his attorneys in Ireland for one year. David de Wollore received the attorneys.

April 1. Grant, for life or until other order, to John Poterne of the office of Westminster. ranger in the forests of Pederton, Exmore and Rechich: taking in the office the accustomed fees and profits. By p.s.

Grant in like terms to John atte Grevet of the office of one of the foresters in the forest of Lyndewode. By p.s.

March 17. Grant for life to William Waryn of Kyngeston of 3d. a day out of Westminster. the issues of the county of Surrey. By p.s.

March 16. The like to Richard de Clopton, for long service, of 100s. yearly at Westminster. the exchequer beyond the 100s. yearly granted to him at another time. By p.s.

Vacated because surrendered as appears on the Patent Roll of this year in the month of October.

April 4. Pardon to Thomas Rok of Westhamme, swineherd (porcarius), Westminster. indicted of the death of William Cristemasse of Westhamme, of the king's suit for the death and of any consequent outlawry; as Hugh, porter of Westminster palace, has informed the king that he killed him in a hot conflict. By p.s.

April 6. Grant for life to John Sterre, for long service and because he has Westminster. been maimed in such service, of 2d. a day for his sustenance and 10s. yearly at Christmas for a robe and shoe-leather out of the issues of the county of Huntingdon. By p.s.

March 26. Pardon, for good service done in France in the company of John Westminster. de Cobham in the time when the king was last there for the expedition of the war, to William de Gryles, parson of the church of South-Kelseye, indicted, to wit once of this that on Friday before Midlent, in the thirty-third year, he came by night to the house of Robert de Holme of Langton and abducted Agnes daughter of the said Robert and wife of William de Casthorp, with goods of the said William to the value of 100s. and at another time of this that he came on the said day by night at Southlangton within the close of the said Robert and abducted the said Agnes with goods of the same William to the value of 20s. of the king's suit for these felonies and trespasses and of any consequent outlawries. By p.s.

Feb. 17. Grant, on surrender by the Friars Preachers of Langeley of letters Westminster. patent whereby the king granted them—in lieu of 917. 5s. yearly of his alms at the exchequer, the farm of 80s. of the alien priory of