

1361.

Membrane 9d—cont.

William de Thorpe, William de Haldenn, John Clerk of Suthampton and Simon Mayn, on information that whereas many merchants, aliens and denizens, freighted a ship of John Goldbeter, John Salaman of England and Jakemart Flemyng, merchants, worth 500*l.* whereof Christian Roos of Lescluse was master, with goods and merchandise to the value of 20,000*l.* at Nautes in Brittany, to make their profit in Flanders, a large number of evildoers in ships of William le Smale of Dertemuth and other ships of war in no small number boarded the ship on its way to Flanders, killed the said master and mariners and others therein to the number of 100 persons and brought the ship with its cargo to the port of Chichester and there discharged much of the cargo and put it up for sale and brought the ship thence by ports along the coast of Sussex, Southampton, Wilts, Dorset, Devon and Cornwall westwards, and there disposed of the residue of the cargo.

By C.

The like to the said constable, William de Thorpe, William de Haldenn, Robert de Bilknap, Andrew de Gildeford and John Clerk of Suthampton touching all felonies done in the said counties. By C.

MEMBRANE 7d.

April 6. Commission de gurgitibus et kidellis, as above, to William de Westminster. Skippewyth, Thomas de Ingelby, Illard Usseflet and Henry de Barton, for the rivers of Hull and Use, in the counties of York and Lincoln.

By C.

MEMBRANE 6d.

Feb. 17. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas de Lodelowe, Robert Westminster. de Belknappe and Thomas Colpeper, on complaint by Simon, archbishop of Canterbury, and others having lands within the marsh of Romene that, whereas for the defence of the said lands against the sea it was ordained in the time of King Henry III by Henry de Baa and his fellows, justices appointed to survey the walls, gutters and dykes of that marsh and the defence thereof, amongst other things, that every tenant and resident within the bounds of the marsh whom the majority of the lords having lordship in the marsh should elect should be bailiff to levy the scot assessed to be levied for the repair and maintenance of the walls, although John atte Lose, tenant and resident in the marsh, has been deputed in due form to the said office, Matthew atte More and his accomplices, confederate together by false covin to make a bailiff with their assent who would spare them and charge others unduly, have so terrified him that he has not dared to undertake the office.

By K. &amp; C. in Parl.

May 6. Commission to William de Shareshull, John de Lyouns, John de Westminster. Evesham, Thomas de la More, Ralph Brise and Robert de Wyght-hull, reciting that, whereas in the statute published at Westminster in the fith year it is agreed that any juror in assizes, juries or inquisitions, convicted of taking from the one party and from the other, shall not again be put on such assizes, &c., and shall be imprisoned during the king's pleasure, the king is given to understand that John de Herdewyke of Lynleye and his fellows, jurors in an inquisition taken at Warrewyk before John Moubray and his fellows, justices of assizes in the county of Warwick, by writ of nisi prius, between Hugh son of