1961.

Membrane 26—cont.

divine service daily in the church of St. Mary, Great Badewe, for his good estate, for his soul when he is departed this life, and for the souls of his father, mother and ancestors.

And be it remembered that the 6l. have been paid in the hanaper.

May 10. Pardon to William Peterouch, late buyer of the king's kitchen, of Westminster. 202l. 16s. 7d. wherein he is bound to the king of arrears of his account of the time when he was in the office. By p.s.

Membrane 25.

May 5. Appointment, during pleasure, of John de Alkeshull to take hewers of stone, carpenters and other workmen for the king's works in the Tower of London, the palace of Westminster, the castles of Wyndesore, Haddeleye and the isle of Shepeye, and the manors of Henle and Yeshampstede, and the town of Calais, and put them on the works at the king's wages for such time as they are required; also to purvey timber, stone, iron, lead, tiles, fuel and all other necessaries for the works and take carriage for the same; to make indentures or tallies whereby the king can have due payment for the timber &c. made at the exchequer; and to arrest all those whom they find contrariant or rebellious in the premises and bring them to Wyndesore castle to be detained in custody until further order. By K.

May 7. Exemplification, at the request of the provost and scholars of the king's house of St. Mary, Oxford, of the tenour of the enrolment of an ordinance touching the hospital of St. Bartholomew without Oxford, made at Lincoln, on 10 February, 9 Edward II. [Calendar of Close Rolls, 1313-1318, pp. 323, 324.]

May 10. Grant to Ralph de Ferraris, in consideration of his activity and laudable bearing in the king's deeds of war in parts beyond seas as well as within and his useful service in these and other things, not avoiding bodily peril, of an annuity of 100 marks at the exchequer; for life or until the king cause an equivalent of land or rent to be provided for him. By K.

May 10. Presentation of Robert de Feridon, chaplain, to the chantry of the chapel within the king's manor of Clipston; directed to J. archbishop of York.

Appointment of the king's serjeant at arms Thomas Duraunt and Thomas de Hampton to arrest in all ports and places in the county of Lancaster [and] in the parts of Wales as far as the river Severne ships suitable for crossing the sea and the shipping of men and horses for the passage of the king's son Lionel whom he is about to send to Ireland with a sufficient force of armed men and archers for the salvation of that land; and to cause the ships to come to the ports of Cestre and Lytherpol with all speed so as to be there seven days before the feast of St. Peter's Chains or by the said feast at the latest; and to arrest all whom they find contrariant or rebellious and commit them to prison until the king give other order touching them.

By K. & C. E 2