1361.

Membrane 28—cont.

Thomas de Galdewell; and for the appropriation of the church by the prior and convent.

And be it remembered that the 40 marks have been paid in the hanaper.

May 10. Appointment of John de Cornubia and the sheriff of Lancaster to Westminster. array 200 archers in the county of Lancaster and have them brought, with 180 archers whom the king has commander to be selected in the county of Chester and delivered to them, to the ports of Crete and Liverpool for the passage to Ireland of the king’s son Lionel, earl of Ulster; so that they be there seven days before St. Peter’s Chains or on that feast at the latest: also to arrest and imprison until further order all those whom they find contrariant or rebellious herein.

The like of Ralph de Ferreres and the sheriffs of Leicester and Derby to array 40 archers in each of the said counties to go as above.

By K.

The like of Nicholas Beck, William de Chetewynde and the sheriff of Stafford to array in that county 60 mounted archers to go as above.

The like of the following to array the numbers stated:

John de Bromwych, Thomas Chaundos and the sheriffs of Gloucester and Hereford, 60 archers in each county.

John Musard, Henry de Ardern, John Charneels, squire, and the sheriffs of Worcester and Warwick, 40 archers in the former and 30 archers in the latter county.

John atte Leghe, Robert de Stapelton and the sheriff of Salop, 60 archers in that county.

May 29. Pardon of special grace to Hugh Mareys of Briggewauter of the king’s suit for the death of William Cornissch of the county of Somerset, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry.

By p.s.

Membrane 22.

May 11. Appointment, during pleasure, of Robert Wollwich to take timber for the building of the king’s ships and carriage for the same, to be paid for by the hands of the king’s clerk Matthew de Torkeseye, clerk of the same ships, and sufficient carpenters for the building, to put them at work at the king’s wages to stay therein as long as shall be necessary, and to arrest and imprison until further order those found contrariant or rebellious in the premises.

By K.

May 13. Grant, for life or until other order, to the king’s yeoman John de Hamelton, for good service and because he has been maimed in the said service, of an annuity of 100s. at the exchequer.

By p.s.

May 16. Licence for the sub-prior and convent of the church of St. Bartholomew, Smethefeld, London, to elect a prior in the room of John, deceased.

By K.

May 17. William de Wynterton, parson of the church of Callan in Ireland, Westminster, staying in England on the king’s service, has letters nominating William de Langetoft, clerk, and John Keppok as his attorneys in Ireland for two years. Thomas de Brayton received the attorneys.