May 10. Grant to Robert Feridon of Averham, chaplain of the chantry of the chapel within the king's manor of Clipston, and of the chapel of St. Edwin in Shirewode forest, with the oblations thereof, to have for his life, taking for the chantry 100s. yearly by the hands of the sheriff of Nottingham as other chaplains who have had the chantry have taken.

May 13. Mandate in pursuance to the sheriff.

April 23. Whereas the king has charged his yeoman Walter Whithors, usher of the free chapel in Wyndesore castle, to bear the rod in his presence before the college of the chapel in processions on feast days when the king is present, in order that he may support that charge more readily he has granted him 12d. a day at the exchequer for life. By K.

June 1. Grant, for life or until other order, to Nicholas Hardy, for long service, of 100s. yearly out of the issues of the county of Lincoln. By p.s.

John Croysy, prior of St. Feighan of Fore (Favoria), going to Ireland, has letters nominating John Telyng, clerk, as his attorney in England for two years. John de Brayton, clerk, received the attorney.

May 12. Grant for life to the king's yeoman Richard Stury of the office of assayer of measures in Ireland in the same manner as Robert Chaundos, deceased, had it; and licence for him, because he stays continually with the king, to discharge the office by substitutes so long as he shall stay with him. By p.s.

May 10. Pardon, for 26s. 8d. paid to the king by Bertram de Wylymanton, to him and Joan his wife for acquiring in tail from Richard de Wylymanton 80 acres of land in Wylymanton, held in chief, and entering therein without licence; and licence for them to retain the same in tail with reversion to the said Richard and his heirs.

May 15. On the petition of Anthony de Burton, son and heir of Roger de Burton, "chivaler," shewing that, although his said father bore himself faithfully towards the king's father and the king, persisting in their homage and fealty, nevertheless William de Nessefeld, escheator in the counties of Westmoreland and York, pretending that he adhered to Andrew de Hercla, traitor and rebel to the late king, and the Scots, has taken into the king's hand the manor of Burton in Kendale and all the other lands of petitioners said father in Berburn, Maasergh, Lupton, Hoton Rof, Preston and Hencastre, co. Westmoreland, and Weatherleseye, Thurkelby and Austewyk, co. York, which descended to him by hereditary right; the king, for 100 marks, to wit 50 marks