June 6. Master Bernard de Saltu, going beyond the seas, with the king’s licence has letters nominating Henry Pycard, citizen of London, and Robert de Orcheston as his attorneys in England for two years. The chancellor received the attorneys.

June 2. Grant for life to John de Norton, for long service, of the office of porter (portitoris) of the great wardrobe, as John de Elmeswell, deceased, had it, taking the usual fees and wages. By p.s. [25386.]

April 10. Whereas on 11 March, in the thirty-third year, the king granted to his serjeant Richard de Huntyngdon an annuity of 10 marks so long as he should stay in his service and when he retired of 10s. at the exchequer and whereas the said Richard has now retired and surrendered the letters patent, the king has granted to him 10s. at the exchequer yearly for his life. By p.s.

Membrane 20.

June 5. Licence for John de Forges and Stephen de Forges, burgesses of Tours, hostages for the performance of the treaty with France, who are bound to remain in the city of London, to pass whither they will within the realm for one whole month from Monday following the date of these presents. French. [Foedera.]

The like for the other burgesses, named. [Foedera.]

June 4. Protection with clause nolumus for ever for the dean and chapter of the college of canons seculars in the new collegiate church of the Annunciation of St. Mary, Leycestre, founded by Henry, late duke of Lancaster, whose body lies buried therein, for their manors and places of Leycestre, Kynnersford, Cheddeworth, Hanyngdon and Wolaston, their churches of Irecestre, Heggam Ferers, Raundes, Duffeld, Lande-vaylok and Pembray and all their other places. By p.s.

June 10. Licence for the lord of Mauleverer, for his health’s sake, to go from London, where he is obliged to stay as one of the hostages for the performance of the peace with France, to any place within the realm for one month from Monday next, on condition that at the end of the month he present himself before the king or his council in London, as he has promised, to remain a hostage in the hand of Walter de Mauny, ‘chivaler.’ French.

July 1. The like for the king’s nephew the duke of Angeou, on condition that he present himself at the end of the month, as he has sworn to do, to remain in the hand of Thomas Doudale, ‘chivaler.’ French. [Foedera.]

June 21. Presentation of Thomas de Brok, chaplain, to the church of Grotne, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of Bury St. Edmunds.

June 17. Presentation of Robert de Ellerker, chaplain, to the church of St. Stephen Walbrook, London, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of St. John Cocestre.