

Membrane 20—cont.

June 18. Appointment, for one year, of Nicholas de Donynngton and Ellis Westminster. Terry to purvey wheat and other things for the office of the bakehouse of the household, pursuant to the statute published at Westminster in the twenty-fifth year.

The like of the following purveyors, for one year except where stated otherwise:

Aug. 1. Nicholas de Donynngton and Roger de Donynngton, for the said office.

Adam de Kenyngton and Richard Cokes, for the same office.

Oct. 18. Thomas Prest and John de Chestre, for the office of the saucery; during pleasure.

Oct. 20. John de Wormynton, for the office of the avenary.

Nov. 5. Bochard Rolf and John Warener, for the office of the avenary.

Henry atte Watour, for the same office.

Nov. 10. Richard de Wyle, for the office of the great kitchen.

By testimony of John atte Lee, steward of the household.

John de Conyngesby and Nicholas de Caversham, for the office of the great kitchen.

By testimony of the said John.

William Dagenill, for the office of the poultry.

By testimony of the same John.

Richard Ballard and John Haneburgh, for the expenses of the hall and chamber.

By testimony of the same John.

John de Parys, for the office of the great kitchen.

Membrane 19.

June 4. Pardon, for good service done in the war of France in the company of William de Felton, to William Dunche of Bungeye of the county of Suffolk of the king’s suit for the death of Alice daughter of Thomas de Brotherton late wife of Edward de Montagu, for his having stolen timber, chips (astell), ‘faget’ and two leaden vessels worth 10s. late of Edmund le Listere at Dicingham, carried away a coffer late of Thomas Horne, chaplain, and 20 marks therein in Bungeye priory, and a cartload of timber late of John Birle there, and stolen a horse late of William son of Reynold atte Marche worth 30s. at Kelsale, as well as goods of the said William son of Reynold, also for having stolen eleven horses and twenty cows late of Margery Roos at Waddon, brought them to Bungeye and there impounded them until five of the animals died, for having taken eight horses worth 4l. from Roger Kerbrok, Thomas Baron, Simon Ray, chaplain, and Robert Hemyng at Bungeye and impounded them until John de Resule bound himself in 20l. for their deliverance, for having taken by force sixteen cows, worth 10 marks, from James, prior of Thetford Monachorum, and impounded them until the prior bound himself in 10l. to Edward de Mountagu for their deliverance, and driven away horses and cows of the lady of Roos, the master of Kerbrok and the prior of Thetford at Watton, Kerbrok and Merton and detained them until they made fine with the said Edward by 10l. for their deliverance, of which felonies and trespasses, perpetrated before Michaelmas in the thirty-third year, he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawries.

By p.s.