when this shall be necessary, draw the wells dry, throw the soil, water and mud from them on the adjacent land, clean the wells and replace the heads, without impediment by the king or the constable of the castle which the king has lately had built in the said place called Bynnee, and it is the king's will that they shall have free ingress and egress through that place with their carts, horses and other animals by the causeway by which one goes to the castle and by all ways and paths leading from Menstre to Bynnee to drive their animals there and water them there and make their profit in other ways as shall be expedient. By K.

June 11. Grant, during pleasure, to Peter Rede of the office of bailiff of the town of Dover, in the same manner as Robert de Causton lately had the office of the king's grant. By p.s.

June 10. Ratification of the estate of the king's clerk William de Swynflet Westminster. as parson of the church of Blychyng (sic), notwithstanding any right the king could claim by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric of Norwich being at any time in the hands of his progenitors or for other cause. By K.

June 20. Grant to Eustace Daubrichecourt of the wardship of the lands late of William de Fifhide, tenant in chief, with the marriage of the heir. By p.s.

June 20. Presentation of Robert Aukes, chaplain, to the church of Bramwyth, Westminster. in the diocese of York, in the king's gift by reason of the lands of Henry late duke of Lancaster, being in his hands.

MEMBRANE 18.

June 8. \textit{Inspeximus} and confirmation of a writing of John de Nessefeld, Westminster. warden of the hospital of the Holy Innocents without Lincoln and the brothers and sisters of the hospital; dated at Lincoln in the hospital, 5 Id. July, 1357, notifying that they had received Thomas de Spayne and Eustachia his wife to be their fellows to promote the state of the hospital, granting to them in survivorship 2s. a week from the hospital and a house called 'le Kychenhalle' with chambers built over it, to wit a soller and a kitchen, for their stay, with free ingress and egress on both sides of the house according to ancient use, to wit at the chapel of the hospital on one side and at the highway on the other side, so nevertheless that it shall be lawful for them to be absent from the hospital at their pleasure without withdrawal or detention of the rent or corrody. They undertake to cover and keep up the house at their own cost against wind and rain as often as shall be necessary in any part of the house, and have granted also to Thomas and Eustachia 80 thraves of turves to be