The like to the chapter of the church.

Dec. 13. Whereas the pope by virtue of a reservation made after the death of John, last bishop of Rochester, when the church of Rochester was void, has appointed William, late archdeacon of Huntingdon, to be bishop of that place, and the king, because the said William has renounced before him all words in the pope's letters prejudicial to the king and crown has taken his fealty in respect of the manor of Cobhambury and tenements in Sunderassh, co. Kent, and the manor of Middelton Cheynwyt, co. Northampton which were in the king's hand as parcel of the temporalities of the bishopric by reason of the voidance, he orders John Ty, escheator in the county of Kent, to deliver the above manor and tenements in that county to the said William.

In like manner Richard de Wydevill, escheator in the county of Northampton, is ordered to deliver to him the said manor in that county.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants of the bishopric.
