1362. Membrane 18—cont.

March 26. Grant to the king's clerk John de Bisshopeston of the prebend c Westminster. Great Morton which Master Simon de Sudebury lately held in the church of Hereford, in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the bishopric of Hereford. By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to L. bishop of Hereford.

The like to the dean and chapter.

March 30. Protection, during pleasure, for workmen and labourers hired by Westminster the king's son Lionel to work his wood in South Frith chase thrown down by the last storm of wind as well as to do other works in the same.

April 3. Whereas John de Wyngefeld, since deceased, enfeoffed Richard Damonddevill, parson of the church of Sternefeld, and Roger de Wombevell, parson of the church of Weston, of 69 acres of land and 17s. of rent in Wyngefeld, held in chief, and they, by fine levied in the king's court, granted the same to him and Eleanor, his wife, still surviving, in tail male, with remainders to Katharine wife of Michael de la Pole, knight, and the heirs begotten by him of her body, to the heirs of the body of the said John, to Thomas de Wyngefeld, his brother, and the heirs of the body of Thomas, to William de Wyngefeld and the heirs of his body, and to the right heirs of the said John, and Richard and Roger and afterwards John and Eleanor entered into the land and rent without licence; the king, for 40s. paid by Eleanor, has pardoned these trespasses and granted licence for her to retain the same with remainders as above.

April 1. Protection, during pleasure, for John Godynge, servant of the king's Westminster daughter Isabel, whom she is sending with three grooms to buy horses, oxen, cows, sheep, swine and other animals to stock her manors, and for the grooms, in going towards the north for this, buying the same and bringing them to the manors, and for the animals. By K.

March 30. Grant to the king's yeoman John de Beverlee of the wardship of the Westminster lands late of James de Pakenham, knight, who held in chief; with the marriage of the heir.

April 22. Grant to Henry Grene, chief justice, of 20l. yearly at the exchequer Westminster for such time as he be in the office, beyond the 20l. yearly there lately granted to him by the king. By K.

April 4. Grant to the king's clerk David de Wollore of the prebend of Coppen-hale in the king's free chapel of Penkerich. By K.

Mandate to the chapter to admit him.

Whereas the archbishop of Dublin, when an Englishman, is dean of the said chapel and the collation of all vacant prebends in the chapel pertains to him and the minister of the chapel for forty days from the time of the vacancy and when that time has elapsed to the king, and