March 20. Licence for John Orlaston, knight, to grant for life to Simon Dolsil, Westminster, and Joan, his wife, two parts of the manor of Orlaston, held in chief. If they die within the next ten years, their heirs or executors shall have the two parts until the end of those ten years, rendering the true value yearly. By K. on the information of W. de Wykeham.

March 10. Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted to his yeoman Walter Whithors the keeping of the palace of Westminster and the Flete prison during the nonage of the heir of Margaret daughter and heir of John Senche, if she had one and such heir were not of age or for life if there were no heir, he is now informed that there is an heir and such heir is within age, and on surrender by Walter of the said letters patent he has granted to him the keeping of the premises as well as all the lands of the said Margaret, until the full age of the said heir with the marriage of the heir, and so from heir to heir. By p.s.

March 19. Mandate to William de Otteford, escheator in the counties of Westminster, Cambridge and Huntingdon, to deliver the temporalities of the bishopric of Ely to Simon, late abbot of Westminster, whom the pope has provided to be bishop of that place in the room of Thomas deceased. [Prædica.] The like to the following:—
Roger de Wolferton, escheator in Norfolk, Essex and Hertford.
John Pecche, mayor and escheator of London.
Writ de intendiendo to the tenants.

March 18. Richard Vernon, 'chivaler,' staying in England, has letters Westminster nominating John de Langton as his attorney in Ireland for one year. John de Tamworth, clerk, received the attorney.

March 20. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by the abbess and convent of Romseye to the rector and brethren of the house or monastery of regulars of the order of Augustine, Edyndon, of two messuages and a virgate of land in Edyndon, held in chief as parcel of the temporalities of the said abbey, in exchange for two messuages and a virgate of land in Edyndon held of the abbess and convent as of their manor of Edyndon; so that the rector and brethren hold the lands to be assigned to them of the abbess and convent by such services as they rendered for the land assigned by them, and the abbess and convent hold the land assigned to them in exchange of the king in chief as parcel of their temporalities by the same services as they held the other land by. By K.

March 23. Presentation of John de Waverton to the church of Aldeston, in the Westminster, diocese of Carlisle.

March 24. Whereas the king by letters patent ratified a grant by William de Faudon to John Bray of his life estate in an annuity of 10 marks at the exchequer of the grant of Edward II, granting that John should retain the annuity for life if William should predecease him; and whereas afterwards, at the supplication of Druet Godyn, to whom, for service to the king's kinsman Robert Dartois, he by letters patent granted an annuity of 20 marks at the exchequer, and on surrender of the said letters, he granted the said annuity to the said John...