underground from a well called Caldewell by the town through the soil of the commonalty of the town, to lay the pipes of such conduit under the ground where this may most advantageously be done and repair the same when necessary.

By p.s.

Feb. 7. Henry de Brisele, going to Calais with the king's licence, has letters nominating Thomas de Bledelawe as his attorney in England for one year.

David de Wollere received the attorney.

Feb. 12. Nicholas, prior of Llanthony Prima in Wales, going to Ireland with the king's licence has letters nominating Richard de la Bere, 'chivaler,' as his attorney in England for two years.

He has other letters nominating Adam de Teukesbury, his fellow-canon, and Hugh de Monyton as his attorneys in England for the same time.

He has other letters nominating Philip Langwaran and Stephen de Lugwardyn as above.

William de Haukesworth, clerk, received the attorneys.

Feb. 16. Presentation of James Walssh to the church of Great Stokton, in the diocese of Lincoln.

Renewed because sealed at another time by p.s.

Feb. 16. Grant to the king's clerk John de Hermesthorp of the prebend in Westminster, the king's free chapel of St. Stephen in the palace of Westminster which William de Walcote lately had.

By K. Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter.

Feb. 16. Appointment of the king's serjeant at arms, Richard de Imworth, Westminster, and Reynold Shire, to arrest twelve ships of the burden of 50 tuns and upwards in the ports of Bristol, Shepstone and elsewhere in those parts and have them at Bristol by Midlent at latest for the passage of some whom the king is sending to Ireland on his service; and to imprison all contrariants and rebels during the king's pleasures.

By K.

Membrane 36.

Rex omnibus ad quos etc. salutem. Whereas he lately granted inter alia to his son Edward, prince of Aquitaine, and Wales, duke of Cornwall and earl of Chester, and his heirs, future kings of England, the stannary of the county of Cornwall with the coinage of the stannary and the pleas and perquisites of the court of the stannary and mine in that county (except 1,000 marks yearly previously granted in tail male to William de Monte Acuto, late earl of Salisbury), until the castle and manor of Troubrigg and the manors of Aldeburn, Aumbresbury and Wytterburn, co. Wilts, Caneford, co. Dorset, and Henstrigg and Cherleton, co. Somerset, of the value of 800 marks yearly, then held for life by John de Warenna, earl of Surrey, and Joan, his wife, and 200 marks yearly of land and rent promised to the earl of Salisbury and the heirs male of his body by the king came into their hands; and whereas afterwards he granted to his said son 1,000 marks yearly of the customs in the port of London; as in the letters patent thereof more fully appears; the said earl of Surrey and Joan are now deceased and by their decease William son and heir of the