1363.

of Crischurch on the north, another tenement in Tamistrete, London, north of the street, opposite Ebbegate, in the parish of St. Martin Orgar, which tenement the sometime Augustine Waleys of Woxbrugge, clerk, acquired from Gregory de Rokesleye and in which John de Sancto Albano now dwells, situated between tenements of Nicholas Wetherby on the east and William Chaundeler on the west, and abuts towards the north, another messuage and four shops in Fletestrete in the suburb of the said city, in the parish of St. Martin without Ludgate, which Andrew Grantcourt, goldsmith of London, holds, situated between tenements of the hospital of St. Mary without Bishopsgate towards the east and abutting on the highway towards the north, extending from that way to London wall towards the south, and lying on the west side by a tenement called Helle pertaining to a chantry in the church of St. Paul, London. In testimony whereof the common seal of the prioress and convent is appended to the part of the indenture remaining with John Turk and his seal to the other part. Dated at London, 30 November, 37 Edward III. And confirmation of the same notwithstanding that the said priory or house of Derteford is of the king's foundation and all the said tenements were lately granted by him to that house, or that the portion assigned to John by the indenture exceeds that assigned to the prioress and convent, or that the partition was made without the king's licence.

By p.s.

Sept. 6. Licence, on condition that the abbot and convent of Dale and their successors continually and specially have daily recommendation of the king by name in their prayers and suffrages, as well in their masses as in their chapters, for ever, for them to acquire in mortmain 20l. yearly of land and rent not held in chief, provided that inquisitions thereof be made in due form.

By p.s.

Nov. 20. Grant to John Pays of the wardship of the manor of Pomeknolle, Westminster, co. Dorset, in the king's hands by reason of the idiotcy of John son and heir of Robert Panes, which the king lately committed to Thomas Moigne, now deceased; to hold for such time as the manor remain in the king's hands for this cause without rendering anything but finding fit sustenance for the said John according to the rate of the value of the manor, consideration being had to the value of his other lands if he have any elsewhere.

By p.s.

Nov. 16. Power to Thomas de Bevrele, prior of the Hospital of St. John of Westminster, Jerusalem in Ireland, chancellor of Ireland, to ordain and appoint by advice of the council in those parts as many justices as shall be required to keep the king's rights and laws of the said land. By K. & C.

1364.

Jan. 3. Licence, for 40l. paid to the king by Elizabeth late the wife of John Westminster. de Carreu who held in chief, for her to marry whomsoever she will of the king's fealty.

1363.

Nov. 25. Grant to the abbot and convent of Bordesle of 7l. 4s. 6d. yearly Westminster. at the exchequer until they have appropriated and obtained full seisin of the church of Kynefare, the advowson of which the king has granted to them.

By K. on the information of William de Wykeham.