it is threatened with total destruction and dispersal of the monks; and commission of it to the keeping of William de Shareshull, Roger Elmerugge and John Nowers, so that all the revenues of the abbey, saving reasonable sustenance for the abbot and convent and their households, may be applied to the payment of debts and relief of the state of the abbey, during pleasure.

By C.

James le Botiller, earl of Ormond, staying in Ireland on the king's service, has letters nominating John de Kyngesfold as his attorney in England for one year. David de Wolley received the attorney.

Membrane 45.

Feb. 1. Appointment until St. Peter's Chains, pursuant to the form of the Westminster statute of the Parliament lately held at Westminster, of Richard de Neuton to buy for the office of the avenary of the household. French. The like of the following buyers:—

Feb. 4.

Edmund Tettesworth, for the 'despence' of the household; until St. James the Apostle. By K.

Feb. 15. Adam de Kenyngton, for the office of the bakehouse of the household; until St. Peter's Chains.

June 10. John atte Welle, for the office of the buyer for the hall and chamber of the household; until Christmas. William Wymer, for the like; until Christmas.

July 18. John de Conyngesby, for the office of the buyer for the kitchen of the household; until the Purification. Richard de Worlee, as above.

July 20. Richard de Neuton, for the office of the avenary of the household; until the Purification.

Sept. 23. Edmund Tettesworth, for the 'despence' of the household; until Easter.

Aug. 10. John de Ormesby, for the like; until the Purification. William de Blakomore, as above.

Oct. 10. William de Ramenham, for the office of the bakehouse of the household; until Easter. Adam de Kenyngton, as above. French.

March 28. Appointment as above pursuant to the form of the statute made in the last Parliament at Westminster, of the king's yeoman Peter de Wytele to buy for the office of the poultry of the household; until Michaelmas. French. The like of the following buyers:—

Nicholas Blount, as above.

Richard Sampson, as above.

John de Thorneton, as above.

Peter de Wytele, as above; until Easter.

Richard Sampson, as above.

John de Thornton, as above.

Nicholas Blount.