celebrate divine service daily in the chapel for the souls of the said Edmund and Joan, his wife, Henry Cheynere and Alice, his wife, and for the king and his progenitors, and the said William and John have now quit-claimed to the king and his heirs their estate in the premises, the king has assigned the same in mortmain to the said dean and college to find a chaplain as above. By p.s.

April 30. Presentation of Thomas Cobaton, chaplain, to the church of Westminster. Blaketoryton, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the lands and heir of Nicholas de Seymor.

April 30. Walter Pavely, 'chivaler,' going beyond seas on the king's service, Westminster, has letters nominating Bartholomew de Burgherssh and William Stel, clerk, as his attorneys in England for one year.
David de Wollore received the attorneys.
He has other letters nominating Thomas de Hungerford and John Gildesburgh as above. The said David &c.

April 26. Thomas de Graumsoun, going beyond seas on the king's service, has Westminster. letters nominating Thomas de Lodelowe and John Pecche as his attorneys in England for one year.
David de Wollore, received the attorneys.
He has other letters nominating John de Bromwygh as his attorney in England for the same time. The said David &c.

April 20. Protection with clause volumus, until the octaves of St. John the Westminster. Baptist next, for Stephen de Cosyngton, going to Flanders on the king's service. By K.

April 25. Pardon to Peter Gaylard of the island of Gerneseye, who being Westminster. charged with the death of Peter Penny fled to the church of St. Peter Port and abjured the island before the bailiffs and jurats of the islands, of the king's suit for the death and of the abjuration; as the king is informed that he killed him in a hot conflict and not of malice.

March 24. Pardon to Gilbert de Coventre of Surflet of the king's suit for the death of Robert Baret of Spaldyng, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry; as the king is informed that he killed him to save his own life. By p.s.

April 25. Notification that John de Kirkeby, rector of the church of Mepham, Westminster, was never in his lifetime the king's domestic clerk, eating at his table or of his household, or as king's clerk in his service anywhere at his charges, although because he was his liegeman he was perhaps named in the king's letters, after the manner of writing of his court, 'dilectus clericus.'

April 26. The prior of Little Malvern, staying in England, has letters Westminster. nominating William Laweles and Peter de Wakefeld as his attorneys in Ireland for two years.
John de Tamworth, clerk, received the attorneys with the licence of Walter Power.