MEMBRANE 21d.

May 1. Commission to Thomas Tyrell, Edmund de Chelreye, Walter de Westminster. Haywode and John de Estbury, to make inquisition in the county of Southampton touching a claim by the bondmen of the manor of Stratfeld Say, the wardship whereof the king, by letters patent, lately granted to his daughter Isabel, that by colour of an indenture made between Thomas de Say, sometime lord of the manor, and them, which indenture is void in law and of none effect because it was never delivered to them in the lifetime of the said Thomas but was sold to them long after his death by Robert de Sancto Manifeo, they are free, on which account they refuse to do the bond services which they used to do of ancient time.

May 6. Commission to the abbot of Meaux, Richard de Ravenser, provost Westminster. of Beverley, Thomas Tyrell, William de Estfeld and Thomas de Wythornwyk, to make a visitation of the king's hospital of Neuton in Holderness, the patronage of which the king has granted to his daughter Isabel for life; as the king is informed that the hospital is in a greatly decayed state through the negligence of the masters and wardens thereof.

May 8. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas de Ingelby and Illard Westminster. de Usflet, on complaint by Agnes One of Alkebarowe that John Edmundessone de Alkebarowe and oth. rs, at Alkebarowe, co. Lincoln, at divers times broke her closes and houses and reaped her crops; and carried away her said crops and other of her goods and assaulted her men and servants, while attendant on the cleansing of a dyke of ancient time made there to carry off the water of Humbre from her land, and so threatened them that they dared not labour there longer whereby she lost the profit of 15 acres of her land.
