by the prioress and convent of Campesse, the manor of Arkesden co. Essex, which the abbot and convent already hold for ten years of their demise.

All these manors and lands are held of others than the king as are of the value of 20 marks, 7s. 8d. yearly.

Membrane 25.

Oct. 16. Licence for Philip Cole, vintner of Cicestre, to ship in the port that city in two ships 120 quarters of wheat, to wit 60 quarters each, and take the same to Gascony to buy wines of the coming ye to bring to England, notwithstanding the late proclamation forbidding the export of corn. By K. & C.

The like for the following:

Oct. 24. Roger Forbisshour of Cambridge, 60 tons of ale and 40 quarters of peas, in the port of Lenn, for Flandres. By C.

John de Fyncham, burgess of Lenn, 60 tons of ale in the port of that town, for Flandres.

Nov. 4. Richard de Wyke of Sithyngbourn, merchant, 40 quarters of malt beans and peas, in the port of Blakeneye, for Scotland.

Oct. 24. Licence for Richard Kendale and John Pybon, merchants of Cornwall, to ship 20 tons of fish called 'hakes' in the port of Fowy for Gascony to buy other merchandise there to bring to England. By C.

The like for the following:

Odo Esteven and Robert Trygon, merchants of Cornwall, 12 tons of 'hakes,' in the port of Fowy. By C.

Oct. 26. John Boswens and Edmund Bosnaevon, merchants of Cornwall, 30 tons of fish, in the port of Moushole, for Gascony or La Rochelle. By C.

William Godwyn of Kent, merchant, 400 quarters of malt, beans and peas, in the port of Blakeneye, for Scotland. By C.

Nov. 4. John Dref of Cornwall, merchant, 20 tons of 'hakes' and 20 packs of cloths of Ireland, in the port of Fowy, for Gascony. By C.

Oct. 26. Licence, in consideration of Edward, prince of Aquitaine and Wales, for the king's clerk, John de Loudham, the prince's receiver at La Rochelle, to take by his servants 3 lasts of herrings from the port of Great Yarmouth to the said town for the sustenance of him and his household.

Oct. 26. Licence for John Waryn, merchant, to ship 40 tons of ale and 100 quarters of beans and peas in the port of Lenn, to make his profit of in Flandres. By C.

The like for the following:

Nov. 4. John Heton, merchant, 200 little barrels of ale in the port of Ipswich for Flandres or Brabant. By C.

John son of Nicholas de Feriby, 200 quarters of peas in the port of Barton upon Humber. By C.