elsewhere on the highway as they shall deem expedient, and apply under the supervision and disposition of William de Salesbury a John le Bray of Sutton.

By

April 17. Grant, for life or until other order, to the king's yeoman John Longevill of an annuity of 100s. at the exchequer.

By p.

April 30. Pardon, for good service in the war of France in the company of Westminster. John Pecche, to William de Bokengham of Hillyington for having entered the close of Richard de la Rokele at Appelton and carried away gold and silver by tale and other goods; and for receiving Thomas Smyth, 'bulwere,' of Estbarsham and others, indicted for felonies in the county of Norfolk, before Michaelmas in the thirty-third year. Renewed because sealed at another time by p.

April 30. Mandate to the dean, or warden, and the chapter of the king's free chapel of Hastynge to assign a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter to the king's clerk Thomas Thebaud who, on the king's presentation, has been admitted by John de Gotes, parson of the church of Launcyng, vicar-general of William, bishop of Chicheste; who is abroad, to the prebend of Bryghtlyng in their chapel.

May 1. Pardon to Thomas Lovel of Bagethorp, detained in the Marshalsea prison for the death of Robert, parson of the church of Bagethorp and of Robert Jonkyn, rector of the church of Bagethorp, who are one and the same person, of the king's suit for that death; as the king has learned by the record of Henry Grene and his fellows, justice of the King's Bench, that he killed him in self defence.

May 2. Licence for John Balle, merchant, to ship in the port of London 8 tons of old wine which he bought in London from John de Selby of London, merchant, and cannot sell in the city because the wine has lost its strength, and take it to Flanders or some other place where he can make his profit of it; as it has been testified by William de Strete, the king's butler, that the premises are true.

May 3. Grant for life to the king's esquire John de Beverle of two tons of wine yearly, one at Christmas and the other at Easter, in the port of London, of the king's right prises of wine.

May 1. Adam de Bury, citizen and alderman of London, staying in England, has letters nominating John Cokefeld as his attorney in Ireland and to receive moneys due to him by bonds or otherwise for one year. The chancellor received the attorneys.

MEMBRANE 20.

April 25. Grant, for life or until other order, to the king's yeoman Richard Stanes, for good service to the king and Queen Philippa, of an annuity of 100s. at the exchequer.

By p.s.

April 22. The like, for service to the king, to William FitzJohan.

By p.s.

April 26. The like to Thomas de Comberton.

By p.s.