

1365.

Membrane 37d—cont.

he cannot be brought to justice on the indictment in the said coun and deliver him to the keeper of Appelby gaol to be kept there until he be delivered according to law and the custom of the realm.

Feb. 6. Commission to John Nowers, Roger de Elmrugge, John Westminster. Baldyngton and John Herdewyk, to make inquisition in the coun of Oxford touching an information that a very large sum of mone found underground at Broughton, which should pertain to the kir is concealed from him, that two thieves taken with their maino at Molynton and imprisoned have been released without process, and that some evildoers dragged a chaplain out of the church of Broughton and carried away his goods, imprisoned divers others of the king's lieges until they made fines and ransoms with them at their will, and broke the close of John Bernard at Ipwelle and perpetrated trespass and other crimes there. By

MEMBRANE 36d.

Feb. 1. Commission to Thomas Tyrell, Matthew de Clyvedon, John Westminster. Bekynton and John de Mersshton to make inquisition in the count of Somerset touching an information that wastes, sales and destruction of lands, houses, woods and gardens of the manor of South Cadbury now in the king's hands by the nonage of the heir of Thomas de Courtenay, 'chivaler,' who held in chief, and expulsion of tenants thereof have been done by Nicholas de Cadbury, farmer of that manor by demise of the king's daughter Isabel to whom the king committed the wardship of the lands of the said Thomas; that many other trespasses and grievances against the men and tenants of the manor have been done by him; and that many of the said men and tenants have withdrawn and concealed their rents and services from him and have many times inflicted damages on and threatened him and his servants.

Feb. 8. Commission de wallis et fossatis to Ralph Spigurnel, constable of Westminster. Dover castle, John de Cobham, Robert Bilknep, Robert de Corby, William de Halden and William Horn, from a place called 'Le Clyvesende' in the isle of Thanet, co. Kent, as far as Stonore, where the sea has encroached two miles (leucas) and more and in a few days the low lying lands, marshes and pastures along the coast within the hundreds of Ryneslo, Wyngham, Preston and Dounhamford will be annihilated unless immediate steps be taken.

MEMBRANE 35d.

Feb. 8. Commission to William de Skipwyth, Thomas de Ingelby, Illard de Westminster. Usflete and William Bray, reciting that, whereas the prior of St. Katharine's without Lincoln, by petition before the king and council in the present Parliament, shewing that Richard de Wylughby, 'chivaler,' lately held of him two tofts and four bovates of land in Stapelford, co. Lincoln, by the service of 30s. yearly, as is more fully contained in an indenture between the late prior and Geoffrey Goldeston of Stakeden, whose estate the said Richard afterwards had, and that, on its being found by inquisition taken before Walter de Kelby, escheator in the county, that one Oliver de Foston, the king's handman of the