

1865.

Membrane 27d—cont.

each of them under a pain of 100*l.*, that they will well faithfully prosecute for the king, for themselves and for the common of the wapentake of Bukros all and singular the things contained in the said letters.

March 26. The like to William de Skipwyth, John de Moubray, Thomas Windsor. Metham, Marmaduke Conestable, William de Fyncheden and Robert de Fulthorp, touching the said complaint. By J

MEMBRANE 26d.

Feb. 12. Commission of oyer and terminer to Andrew Peverel, Robert Westminster. Bilknappe, Thomas de Lodelowe and John de Wyvill, at the suit of the king and of Richard, earl of Arundel, if he wish to complain, touching evildoers who when the earl was intendant on business of the king and realm and under the king's special protection, fished in his fisheries and stews in divers places in the county of Sussex, broke down parks and entered his free chaces and warrens, hunted in these, and carried away fish and 100 brood swans and other swans, worth 100*l.* deer from the parks and chaces and hares, conies, partridges and pheasants from the warrens. By J

MEMBRANE 25d.

Feb. 22. Commission to William de Skipwyth, Richard de Ravenser, provo Westminster. of the church of St. John, Beverley, John de Botheby, John de Bente and Thomas de Egmonton, to survey the hithes of the water of Humblyton on the Holderness side in a place between 'La Stelle' of Sudcot and Kyngeston upon Hull, which as the king is informed have not been kept in repair whereby the surrounding lands, meadows and pastures are flooded and in danger of total destruction, to find by inquisition who are in fault in this and who are bound to keep the hithes in repair and with the bailiffs of the liberties and other places concerned distrain them to do this, sparing neither rich or poor, to make new agistment where necessary on the hithes for saving them, to depute keeper to save them and to audit the account of the collectors of the money which will be levied for this.

Feb. 28. Association of William de Skipwyth, Marmaduke Conestable Westminster. Thomas de Metham and William de Fyncheden in the commission of oyer and terminer to John de Moubray, Thomas de Ingelby, John de Meus and Roger de Fulthorp, touching trespasses by John de Gerwardby against men of the wapentake of Bugros; because the king intends to appoint the said Thomas and John de Meus to do other business of his and has discharged them of the said office of justice. By K.

MEMBRANE 24d.

Feb. 18. Commission to Edward de Sancto Johanne, Robert Halsham and Westminster. John Wyn to make inquisition in the county of Sussex for the names of those who have transported to foreign parts from ports and places on the coast wools, wool fells and hides, not cocketed or customed, contrary to the king's order and of those who have crossed the seas from the said ports and places contrary to the proclamation, as also of those deputed by the king to see that none passed out of the realm who have permitted...