

1865.

Membrane 9d—cont.

exchequer of England by the king's clerk Walter de Dalby, receiver of moneys for wages of war and other payments in Ireland, a copy of which the king is sending to them under his seal; and to hear and determine the same. By

June 16. Commission to Richard de Widewyll, sheriff of Northamptonshire, William de Haule, sheriff of Lincoln, William Beaufou, sheriff of Rutland, John Leg, king's yeoman, John de Welton, mayor of Lincoln and John de Chestre of Staunford, to make inquisition in the said counties for the names of felons who have at divers times stolen the king's vessels of silver in divers places in the household, worth 200 marks and have exposed them for sale in divers places and at other times retain them in their possession, as the king wishes that the felons should be punished according to their deserts and the vessels or their value of them restored. Those found guilty are to be arrested by them and imprisoned in the keeping of the said John Leg.

June 16. Commission to Simon de Mordon and John de Mitford, sheriffs of London, and Robert de Alby, John Polay, John Broun, John de Kayton, Henry Traynel, John Bysouth and John Charnel, king's serjeants at arms, and William Spycelyng, to attach John atte Mor 'skynnere,' and Richard Smelt, 'skynnere,' who have been indicted before the mayor, coroner and sheriffs of London of the death of Walter Frere, lately killed in the parish of St. Bartholomew 'le Littele' London, and have withdrawn from the city so that they cannot be brought to justice; and to bring them to Neugate gaol.

MEMBRANE 8d.

May 15. Commission of oyer and terminer to Hugh de Courtenay, earl of Devon, Guy de Bryene, John de Moubray and Henry Percehay, on complaint by Roger Plente that, whereas the king by letters patent lately appointed him to make the scrutiny of gold and silver and other things to be taken without the realm, in the county of Devon Henry Par, Henry Austyn, chaplain, Richard Austyn, Geoffrey Brace and others, to prevent his executing the office, assaulted him at Sidemuthe, uttering such threats that he has not dared and dares not to be intendant about the office. By C.

May 13. The like to John Dabernoun, Thomas Hungerford, Robert atte Westminster. Weye and Michael atte Mede, touching all felonies, trespasses, conspiracies, oppressions, extortions and excesses against the king, the stannary men and ministers of the stannaries and others, in the county of Devon. By C.

May 14. Association of Hugh de Monyngton and John de Oldecastel in the Westminster. commission of the peace and of oyer and terminer to Gilbert Talbot, Thomas Chaundos, John de Aynesford and John Gour, in the county of Hereford.

Also, on 18 May, John Colepeper is associated with Ralph Spigurnell, John de Cobham, Nicholas de Lovayn, Robert Bilknap and William de Halden to do the premises in the county of Kent.

Also, on 17 May, Robert Bilknappe and John Colepeper are associated with Richard, earl of Arundel, and his fellows, keepers of the peace in the county of Sussex.