adjoining the wall of the town, for the troning and weighing of wool there and of the safe keeping of the issues of the murage of the town, caused the house to be built as far as the roof which must be of lead, and expended about the building more than 137l. and all the issues of the murage by the year do not amount to 15l. and the said collectors in their account at the exchequer cannot have allowance of the sum expended about the building of the house beyond the 15l. of murage, for which they pray a remedy, and that he, wishing to be certified on the premises as well as of the defects in the bridge of the town over the Tyne which is said to be likely to fall, has appointed them to enquire by the oath of good men of the county of Northumberland touching the building of the house, whether it was necessary for the tronage and the keeping of the town, how much was expended in the building, for how much it can be roofed and how much they have taken of the murage, and touching the defects of the said bridge, by whose carelessness they were caused and for how much they can be repaired.

MEMBRANE 10d.

Nov. 18. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas de Ingelby, John de Westminster, Cavendish and John de Bentele, touching the death of Robert Vyneter, killed at Northampton. By C.

Nov. 20. The like to Robert de Thorpe, Emery de Shirland, Roger de Meers Westminster, and the sheriff of Cambridge, touching the account of the collectors of the pontage of the bridge of Cantebrigge, who are said to have converted to their own use the greater part of the sum collected for the same.

Nov. 20. Commission to the king's serjeant at arms, William de Spaldyng, Westminster, to arrest and bring before the council Walter Chiltenham, canon, Robert Dunsterre, canon, John Strete, canon, Matthew Tiderleye, friar of the Carmelite order, and Robert de Nettelton, clerk, who against the king's prohibition and against a proclamation made throughout the realm are going to foreign parts to prosecute many things to the prejudice of him and his crown. By C.

MEMBRANE 9d.

Nov. 22. Commission to Richard Sholle and Richard Waryn to find by Westminster, inquisitions in the counties of Salop, Hereford, Worcester, Northampton, Buckingham, Essex and Devon, how much land Geoffrey de Cornubia, 'chivaler,' and Marmaduke de Lomley, 'chivaler,' deceased, held of the king in chief in those counties and how much of others, how much these are worth yearly, who and of what age are the next heirs, and who have occupied the lands since the death of Geoffrey and Marmaduke and by what title.

Dec. 2. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas de Ingelby, William Westminster, de Recesby and Richard Fitzwyth, on complaint by Thomas, abbot of Sautre, that Gilbert, parson of the church of Chesterton, Henry Dunston of Norwich, clerk, Roger de Gyddyng, chaplain, John de Hagham, chaplain, John Sparhauk of Rameseye, Nicholas Hurst of Rameseye, William Wayte of Spaldyng, William Selby, William Bellac,