until he be satisfied of the rights due to him of the time during which the priory was void. The king, out of compassion for the prior which through misrule and for other causes is miserably depressid and is now established to be of his patronage, as well as for which Ralph Person, who has lately been elected prior with the king licence and whose fealty the king has taken, will pay into the exchequer, has restored the priory and all the temporalities thereof excepting the issues of such temporalities in the time of the last voidance, to the said Ralph, and has pardoned and remitted to the prior and convent all debts and accounts due to the king for voidance of the priory since its foundation, as also all contempts, trespasses and injuries aforesaid, saving always to himself the advowson of the priory, and the possession and seisin of the temporalities during voidances.

Feb. 6. Pardon to Hugh Payn, chaplain, of his outlawry in the county of Wilts for non-appearance before Robert de la Mare and his fellow-justices of the peace in the said county, to answer touching certain trespasses against the peace whereof he had been indicted; he having now surrendered to the king's prison of Old Sarum, as the said Robert de la Mare has certified.

Feb. 6. Presentation of John de Stayneburn, chaplain, to the church of Westminster. Burgham, in the diocese of Carlisle, in the king's gift by reason of the lands of Isabel de Clifford, deceased, who held in chief, being lately in his hand.

Feb. 4. Order to Thomas Cheyne, escheator in the county of Devon, to deliver to brother Ralph Person, who has been elected with the king's assent to be prior of Plympton priory, all the temporalities of the priory, so that the king be answered of the issues during the last voidance and saving the advowson and patronage of the priory; the king having taken his fealty.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants of the priory.

Feb. 8. John Beauchampe, going on pilgrimage beyond seas by the king's licence, has letters nominating John Croule and William Dodyng, chaplain, as his attorneys in England for one year. William de Mirfeld, clerk, received the attorneys. He has other letters nominating William Parsys, clerk, and Thomas de Cherchehull as above. The same William de Mirfeld &c.

Feb. 8. The abbot of Evesham, going on pilgrimage beyond seas by the king's licence, has letters nominating John de Ambresleye and John de Mulcote, his fellow-monks, as his attorneys in England for one year. William de Mirfeld, clerk, received the attorneys. He has other letters nominating William de Sharesfull, 'chivaler,' and Thomas de Lodelowe, 'chivaler,' as above. The same William de Mirfeld &c.

He has other letters nominating John de Lokynton and Thomas de Cherchehull as above. The same William de Mirfeld &c.