1866.

Membrane 23—cont.

May 10. Pardon in like terms to Geoffrey de Sheffyngton of his outlawry in Westminster, the hustling of London for non-appearance to answer William Wolf touching a debt of 10l.

May 7. Grant to John Knyvet, chief justice, for the more fitting maintenance of his estate and for the support of his charges in the said office, of 100 marks yearly at the exchequer during his stay in the office, beyond the fees which he takes of the king therein. By p.s.

April 5. Grant, for life or until other order, to Clement atte Meerk, yeoman of the chamber, of 4½d. a day at the exchequer, in lieu of a grant to him of 3d. a day, by letters patent, surrendered. By p.s.

May 13. Presentation of Valentine Mory, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Iklesham, in the diocese of Chichester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric being in the king's hand for certain causes. By p.s.

May 13. Grant to the king's clerk, Richard de Ravenser, prebendary of Westminster, Barneby in the collegiate church of St. John, Houedon, of the prebend of St. Stephen in the king's free chapel of St. Stephen, Westminster; on an exchange of benefices with John de Ravenser. By K. Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter of the said chapel.

May 10. Grant to the abbot and convent of Waltham Holy Cross that the grant of sustenance for life which they made, at the king's instant request, to Agnes de Wygeton, deceased, shall not prejudice their house as a precedent. By p.s.

May 18. Grant, for life or until further order, to Lewis Robesart of an annuity of 50 marks at the exchequer. By K.

May 14. Whereas the abbey of La Brewere, co. Oxford, through misrule and Westminster, the carelessness of past presidents is so miserably depressed and burdened by corrodies granted to suspected persons of foul character that the divine worship has ceased and alms and other pious works are withdrawn, and there is danger of the dispersal of the monks there through lack of sustenance; the king has committed the keeping of the abbey with its lands, rents, farms and corrodies to William Hervy and John Goloffer, during pleasure, to dispose of all issues thereof, beyond sustenance required by the monks and their servants to a