May 15. Commission to Walter Devereus, John de Clifford and John de Westminster. Slughter, to make inquisition in the county of Gloucester touching a complaint by Gilbert Giffard and Elizabeth, his wife, sister and heir of Richard Daubeneye, who held in chief, that whereas the prior of St. Oswald's, Gloucestre, ought, and his predecessors time out of mind have been accustomed, to repair a chapel anciently constructed within the manor of Kyngeshome, co. Gloucester, in the king's hand by reason of the nonage of the said Elizabeth, whenever necessary, and find a chaplain celebrating divine service daily in the said chapel, the prior has long withdrawn the said chantry and the chapel is so decayed and broken by lack of repair that there is danger of it falling to the ground within a short time unless quickly repaired.
