
Aug. 25. William de Nevill, son of Ralph de Nevill of Raby, going beyond Westminster, seas by the king's licence, has letters nominating Ralph de Nevill, the elder, as his attorney in England for one year. David de Wollore received the attorney.

He has other letters nominating John de Bretteley and Thomas de Hghtildesham as his attorneys in England as above.

The same David &c.

Sept. 3. Licence for William del Fount, merchant of Bordeaux, to ship in Westminster, the port of London and carry beyond the seas 30 tuns of wine which he lately brought from Gascony to London and which cannot be sold there on account of its poor quality; provided the king's butler, William del Strete, or Geoffrey de Neuton, his deputy in the city of London, testify by letters patent to the truth of the premises. By C.

Aug. 25. Grant to the king's clerk Richard de Bedyk of the chapel of St. Thomas the Martyr on the bridge of Bedeford, void by the resignation of John de Tamworth, the younger.

Mandate to the mayor and bailiffs of Bedeford to induct him.

Sept. 5. Power to J. bishop of Lincoln, to collate and induct in the king's name the king's clerk, David de Wollore, parson of the church of Brynton, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the chapel of St. Thomas the Martyr on the bridge of Bedeford; on an exchange of benefices with Richard Bedyk, parson of the said chapel.

Sept. 6. Walter de Heselarton, 'chivaler,' going beyond seas by the king's licence, has letters nominating Ralph de Nevill of Raby, 'chivaler,' and Thomas de Sutton, 'chivaler,' as his attorneys in England for one year. David de Wollore received the attorneys.

He has other letters nominating Richard de Ravenser, clerk, and Simon de Heselarton, 'chivaler,' as above.

He is also to have other letters nominating Thomas de Ingelby, 'chivaler,' and Richard de Ravenser, clerk, as above.

The same David received the attorneys.

Sept. 3. Presentation of John Kepeston, chaplain, to the church of Clyve, Clarendon, of the immediate jurisdiction of Christ Church, Canterbury, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury. By p.s.

Sept. 16. Protection for one year, on the petition of Beatrice de Brewes, for avering-atte-her, her men, servants and goods, against certain enemies who are committing trespasses and assaults on them on account of their