Nov. 1. Whereas the king is certainly assured that in a quarrel (debata) between Henry Frybern of Liton, co. Bedford, one of the pages of the office of the sancery of the household, and William Portour, of the office of the scullery, William wrathfully and maliciously took Henry's ear in his mouth and bit it, so that he tore off a large part of the upper half of his ear, whereby Henry is greatly disfigured and might incur ill-fame and sinister suspicion; the king, at his request, in order to avert such suspicion, notifies the premises to all whom it may concern.
