354 CALENDAR OF PATENT ROLLS.

1366.

Membrane 2—cont.

grant in fee to Maud, mother of the king’s esquire, John de Beverle, of the premises, which are extended at 7 marks 3s. 4d. yearly, as is said.

By K. and by p.s

1367.

Jan. 22. Inspeximus and confirmation of a writing of the master and brethren of the hospital of St. Giles without London, dated Monday after Michaelmas, 1357, sealed [in the presence of] Henry Pycard, mayor of London, and Bartholomew Frestylng and Stephen Cavendish sheriffs of London, and witnessed by Adam de Bury, John de Stodeye William de Welde and others, granting to the ladies Alice Pygeon and Margery Pygeon, nuns of Kelborn, Thomas Dolsay and Ralph Brun, citizens of London, for the life of the said Alice and Margery a corrody or annual livery, to wit, seven loaves weekly of such weight and bread as others having liveries in the hospital take, and 8d. of silver for their kitchen and drink; also every year for their potage a bushel of peas, a bushel of oat flour and a bushel of salt 52 faggots for fuel, 6s. of silver for clothing and light, with pittance for four festival days as the other brethren and sisters take, with power to distrain for the said corrody if in arrear for one quarter.

For $ mark paid in the hanaper

Jan. 1. Grant to Robert de Elbrugg of the keeping of a messuage, a garde and 16 acres of land, in Walburton, co. Sussex, belonging to Willias son of Nicholas Eyot, extended at 26s. 8d. yearly, which have come into the king’s hand because William is an idiot, as has been found by an inquisition made by John de Tye, escheator in the county of Sussex, to hold for such time as the premises remain in the king’s hand for this cause without rendering anything to the king; so that he find competent sustenance for the idiot of the issues of the premises while in his keeping.

Mandate in pursuance to the escheator.

1366.

Dec. 1. Grant, to the king’s clerk, William de Wykeham, archdeacon of Lincoln, of the keeping of the bishopric of Winchester, and of the temporalities thereof as above, together with all the rents, profit emoluments, recognitions of tenants, liberties, knights’ fees, advowsons, issues and all other appurtenances of the bishopric and the temporalities. It is the king’s will that the guardians of the temporalities render account to him of the issues thereof from the time of the death of the late bishop as fully as they would to the king.

By

1367.

MEMBRANE 1.

Jan. 20. Presentation of Thomas Smyth of Sowe, vicar of the church of Elham in the diocese of Canterbury, to the church of Corundale, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with Laurence de Wyndesore.

Jan. 12. Grant, for life or until other order, to Bochard Rolf of an annuity 100s. at the exchequer.

By

Jan. 16. Grant to the king’s servant, Richard de Sutton, of a messuage the parish of St. Gregory by the church of St. Paul, London, late John Marreys, in the king’s hand on account of certain debts which the said John was held to him at his death, and extended