Feb. 20. On the petition of John Danyel, knight, shewing that he has three Westminster. boats often loaded with victuals, timber and stone for the construction of a bridge between Weryngton and Lacheford, and with goods, passing on the water of Merse between Lacheford and Weryngton for the quiet and recreation of the people of those parts, the king has taken the said boats and their mariners, and the victuals, timber, stone and goods into his protection for two years.

Feb. 30 (sic). Pardon to William de Feltham, alias William de Feltham, late Westminster. bailiff of the hundred of Mutford, of his outlawries in the county of Norfolk for non-appearance before William de Shareshull and his fellows, late justices of the King's Bench, to stand his trial touching trespasses, oppressions, extortions, grievances and excesses whereof he was indicted; he having now surrendered to the Marshalsea prison, as John Knyvet, chief justice, has certified.

Feb. 24. Whereas, on account of a certain payment of procuration which Westminster. William, bishop of Worcester, requires of the parishioners of
