July 11. Pardon to John de Plummouth, 'tailour,' of the king's suit for the death of John de Braunceton of Lincoln, 'loksmyth,' and of any consequent outlawry; as the king is informed that he killed him in self-defence.

By p.s.

July 11. Pardon to Henry Husee, 'chivaler,' of the forfeiture of all his goods because of his outlawry in the county of Kent, which outlawry the king lately pardoned by letters patent; and gift to him of the said goods together with the issues of his lands from the time when they came into the king's hand for that cause.

By p.s.

July 15. Licence, after inquisition made by William de Reygate, late escheator in the county of York, and for 60s. which the king's clerk Richard de Ravenser, master of the hospital of St. Leonard, York, will pay to the king, for the alienation in mortmain by Walter de Naffreton, parson of the church of St. Margaret in Walmegate, York, Ralph de Tideswell, chaplain, and Roger de Alberthorp, to the master and brethren of the said hospital, in augmentation of the sustenance of the poor and infirm persons there, of a messuage in Scardeburgh, held of the king in burgage by the service of 11s. to be rendered yearly towards the farm of that town by the hands of the bailiffs of the town.

By p.s.

July 4. Pardon to William Knyght of Stalbrugge of all outlawries promulgated against him on account of his having been indicted of having, on Wednesday before St. Andrew the Apostle in the thirty-ninth year, come with Richard Coppedok to a place called 'Chikeladerigge,' co. Wilts, and there taken Walter, a brother of the Charthouse, robbed him of a horse worth 100s. and 20s. in money, and taken him to the inn of John Hat; of being a common robber; and of having, on Sunday before Christmas in the same year, with the said Richard, robbed two merchants unknown of 20s. in money in the chase of Cranebourn on the king's highway between Blanford and Shaftesbury in a place called Sutton Hales; and of having, from the feast of the Conception until Monday after the Epiphany following, ridden with the said Richard, armed in plates, habergeons, palets and basinetts with vizers and other armour, lying in wait in dangerous passes in the said chase and elsewhere in that county, and robbing divers men, unknown, and poor merchants of that county going to and from divers markets of all the money in their purses.

By p.s.

July 11. Pardon to Walter Carent of his outlawries consequent on his having been indicted before Nicholas de Carreu and his fellows, justices of oyer and terminer in the counties of Wilts and Dorset, as above.

By p.s.

July 16. Nicholas Moenys, staying in England, has letters nominating John Passavant and Peter Wodere as his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

David de Wollore received the attorneys.

MEMBRANE 4.

July 12. Inspeiximus and confirmation of an agreement between the barons of the Cinque Ports and the men of Great Yarmouth, made before the king and council in Easter term of this present year, touching