1367.

Oct. 10. Westminster. John de Moubray of Axiholm, 'chivaler,' going beyond seas by the king's licence, has letters nominating Robert de Thorpe, 'chivaler,' and Richard de Ravenser, clerk, as his attorneys in England for one year.

David de Wollore received the attorneys.

The same John has other letters nominating William de Gunthorp, clerk, and William de Galby as his attorneys as above.

The same David received the attorneys.

The same John has other letters nominating John Moubray and Walter Power, clerk, as his attorneys as above.

The same David received the attorneys.

The same John has other letters nominating John de Newenham, clerk, and Robert de Morton as his attorneys as above.

The same David received the attorneys.

The same John has other letters nominating Nicholas de Styneele and Richard de Tretton, clerk, as his attorneys as above.

The same David received the attorneys.

Oct. 12. Westminster. Pardon to John Fete, parson of the church of Peykyrk, of his outlawry in the county of Northampton for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer Henry, abbot of Peterborough, touching certain trespasses; he having now surrendered to the Flete prison as Robert de Thorpe, chief justice, has certified.

Oct. 12. Westminster. The like to William son of Robert Shypwryght of his outlawry in the county of Middlesex for not appearing to answer Thomas Mote in a plea that he render him an account of the time during which he was his receiver.

Richard de Ravenser, clerk, received the attorneys.

Oct. 8. Westminster. Thomas de Welton of Snarteford, going beyond seas by the king's licence, has letters nominating John son of John Nevyll of Snarteford and John de Coton as his attorneys in England for one year.

Richard de Ravenser, clerk, received the attorneys.

Oct. 15. Westminster. Pardon to Robert Lenkenore of Hareuden of his outlawry in the county of Sussex for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer Walter Robert de Wendlyngburgh, parson of the church of Erthyngulgh, touching a debt of 45 marks; he having now surrendered to the Flete prison as Robert de Thorpe, chief justice, has certified.