Nov. 23. Edward Dalyngrege, 'chivaler,' going beyond seas by the king's licence in the company of Lionel, duke of Clarence, has letters nominating Roger Dalyngrege and William Mallyng as his attorneys in England for one year. David de Wollere received the attorneys.

Nov. 28. Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford, staying beyond seas, has letters nominating Simon, archbishop of Canterbury, and John de Bampton as his attorneys in England for one year. David de Wollere received the attorneys before the withdrawal of the earl from England.

The same earl has other letters nominating John Knevett and Robert de Thorpe as his attorneys as above. Simon, archbishop of Canterbury, late chancellor, received the attorneys as above.

Nov. 26. Pardon to John Frere of Shryngton, 'wollemonger,' of his outlawry in the county of Northampton for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer John de Geytyngton of Northampton in a plea that he render him an account of the time during which he was his receiver; be having now surrendered to the Flete prison as Robert de Thorpe, chief justice, has certified.

Oct. 24. Grant to the king's servant, John de Conyngeby, buyer of victuals of the household, of the goods late of Thomas Wright of Great Yarmouth to the value of 45L, which were arrested by the bailiffs of that town and are forfeit to the king on account of a felony committed by the said Thomas. Mandate in pursuance to the said bailiffs.

Nov. 20. Walter de Frompton of Melcombe Regis, going on a pilgrimage to Rome by the king's licence, has letters nominating Walter de Perle and John de Frompton as his attorneys in England until Michaelmas. David de Wollere received the attorneys.

Nov. 26. John de Tautheby, 'chivaler,' going beyond seas by the king's licence, has letters nominating William de Bolteby, parson of the church of Waltham, and John Kevermond as his attorneys in England for one year. By writ of secret seal. Walter Power received the attorneys.

Nov. 28. John Dony of London, 'mercer,' going as above, has letters nominating John Wacon and John Espeloun as his attorneys in England for one year. David de Wollere, clerk, received the attorneys.

Dec. 1. The abbot of Keynesham, going as above, has letters nominating Thomas de Bentham, his fellow-canon, and John de Mersahton as his attorneys in England for one year. David de Wollere received the attorneys.

Nov. 30. John Talbot of Richardescastell, 'chivaler,' going beyond seas in the company of Lionel, duke of Clarence, has letters nominating Richard de Estham and William Hampnass, parson of the church of Richardescastell, as his attorneys in England for one year. David de Wollere received the attorneys.