Nov. 28. John de Tamworth, warden of the chapels of St. Mary de Marisco Westminster and St. George in the island of Gerneseye, staying in England, has appointed Nicholas Mesurer, chaplain, as his attorney in that island for two years; and at the instance of the said John, the king has granted the said Nicholas power to appoint attorneys in his place; directed to the keeper of the islands of Gerneseye, Jereseye, Serk and Aurneye, or his lieutenant in Gerneseye. John de Tamworth, clerk, the elder, received the attorney.

Nov. 26. Whereas Walter Auncel, chaplain, is indicted of this, that lately Westminster at Egebaston, as he went out with others of Bermyngham towards Egebaston to sport at archery on the king's highway, there came a man on the high road towards Bermyngham, who, seeing him shooting thus, placed his cap on the ground and said 'Shoot at my cap'; and in so shooting, Walter's arrow fell on a stone there, glanced off on a certain Roger son of Adam Sandy of Moseleye who was sitting by the high road under a bramble-bush (rubus), and struck him by mischance near the navel, whereof he died; and so Walter killed him, not feloniously or of malice aforethought, but very greatly against his will, as Robert de Wauere, coroner in the county of Warwick, has certified: the king therefore has pardoned him his suit for that death, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and any consequent outlawry.
