1367.

Oct. 28.
Westminster.

Membrane 19d—cont.

Nicholas de Haryngton, as above, with a servant, a hackney, as above, and 10 marks. By writ of secret seal.

Nov. 3.
Westminster.

Brother John de Coleshull, monk of Bordesle, from the port of Dover to the Roman Court, with a yeoman, a hackney, as above, and 100s. By letter of secret seal.

Oct. 28.
Westminster.

William, abbot of Keynesham, from the port of Dover to parts beyond seas, with 3 servants, 4 hackneys, as above, a letter of exchange of Reynier Dymenge, merchant of Lombardy, for 60l., and 100l. for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Oct. 28.
Westminster.

William Bridport, Sibyl his wife, Isabel, his daughter, a damsel of the said Elizabeth (sic), Richard Birtton, Winnok Inglish, William de Eylesale, William Wyngham, Henry Laton, Ralph Broucy and Thomas Pouk, from the port of Suthampton to parts beyond seas, with 15 hackneys, as above, and 10 marks for their expenses. By p.s.

Oct. 25.
Westminster.

John Dexamuth, esquire of Reynold Grey of Ruthyn, from the ports of Suthampton, Plummut, or Dertemuth to the parts of Brittany, with 3 hackneys, as above, and 20l. for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Nov. 5.
Sheen.

John Pecche of London, from the port of Dover to the city of Rome, with 12 servants, 12 horses and 200l.

John de Bryklesworthe of London, as above, with 2 yeomen, 3 horses and 50l.

Geu de Wadreseye and Henry de Huy, merchants of Denaunt, from the same port to the parts of Denant, with a yeoman, and the same horses as they brought into England.

Joan de Saulton of London, from the same port to the city of Rome, with 5 servants, 6 horses and 100l.

Walter, falconer of the lord le Despenser, from the same port to Calais, with a yeoman and 2 hackneys, each below the price of 40s.

Willekin, messenger of the Duke Albert, from the same port to foreign parts, with a hackney and letters touching the said duke, and 5 marks.

The prior of Wast of Picardie, from the same port to the parts of Picardie, with a confrère, 2 yeomen and 4 horses which he brought with him into England.

Nov. 8.
Windsor.

Hanecky de Tret, yeoman of the lord of Shenevorst, from the port of Dover to parts beyond seas, with a groom, 2 hackneys, 2 'goues' furred with miniver, his harness and 20 marks for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.