1367.
William de Nevill, 'chivaler,' from the port of Dover to parts beyond seas, with 3 esquires, 6 grooms, 8 horses and 200 marks for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Nov. 13. Westminster.
Adolphus de la Mark, esquire of Almain, from the same port with one knight, 10 esquires with their harness and yeomen, 4 horses which he brought into England, 2 horses which the duke of Clarence and Edward le Despenser gave him, a falcon, 4 greyhounds, and 100 marks for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Nov. 17. Westminster.
Ralph de Sutton, 'chivaler,' from the same port to parts beyond seas, with 3 esquires, 4 yeomen, 8 horses and 100 marks for his expenses. By the same letter.

Gilbert de Dene, from the same port on a pilgrimage to the city of Rome, with a yeoman, 2 hackneys, each under the price of 40s., and 10l for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Nov. 18. Westminster.
Chaundos Herald, from the same port to parts beyond seas, with 2 grooms, 3 hackneys which he brought with him to England from the parts of Gascony, and 10 marks for his expenses.

Average King Herald of Scotland, from the same port to parts beyond seas, with 2 grooms, 3 hackneys which he brought with him to England from the parts of Spain, and 20l for his expenses.

Nov. 16. Windsor.
Hanon, Herald of the duke Albert, from the same port to parts beyond seas, with a groom, 2 hackneys, each under the price of 40s., and 40s. for his expenses.

Henry de Fosso, chaplain, of France, from the same port to the parts of France, with a yeoman, 2 horses which he brought with him into England from the said parts, as by his oath he has asserted, and 30 florins called 'frankes,' for his expenses.

Nov. 20. Westminster.
Ivo Fitz Waryn, from the same port to the parts of le Pruce, with an esquire, 5 yeomen, 6 horses and 100l for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Nov. 20. Westminster.
Anthony de Lucy, from the same port to foreign parts, with 15 horsemen and 500l for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Aubrey de Veer, from the ports of Suthampton, Dertemuth or Plummuth to the parts of Gascony, with 7 yeomen, 8 horses and 100l for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.