1367.

Nov. 16. Westminster. John de Multon and Richard de Welby, from the port of Dover to the parts of le Pruce, with 4 yeomen, 4 hackneys and 40l. for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Nov. 18. Westminster. Brother Ralph Maillok, monk of Lyre in Normandy, from the ports of Plymuth, Dortmuth or Suthamton to parts beyond seas, with 2 yeomen, 3 hackneys, each under the price of 40s., and 10 marks for his expenses.

Nov. 21. Westminster. The falconer of the lord of Heynesbergh, from the port of Dover to parts beyond seas, with a groom, 2 hackneys, as above, and 10l. for his expenses.

Nov. 20. Westminster. John de Harpele, esquire, with three other horsemen (se quarto ad equum), from the ports of Suthamton or Plummuth to the prince of Aquitaine and Wales, with 20l. for his expenses.

Nov. 18. Westminster. The prior of Lenton, from the port of Dover to parts beyond seas, with a chaplain, an esquire, 2 yeomen, 5 horses and 100l. for his expenses.

Nov. 22. Westminster. Master John Paladyn, the king's physician, from the same port to parts beyond seas, with 6 persons, 7 horses and their harness, and 200l. for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

William de Molyns, 'chivaler,' from the same port to parts beyond seas, with 5 persons, 6 horses, and 100l. for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Nov. 21. Westminster. Ralph Maillart, master general of the moncys of the king of France, who lately came to the king of England on behalf of the said king of France, and is returning to his own parts, from the port of Dover to parts beyond seas, with the same horses as he brought with him to England, his household servants, harness and other things. By the same letter.

Nov. 22. Westminster. John del Hay, knight, from the same port to the parts of Gascony, with 4 yeomen, 5 horses and 20l. for his expenses.

Nov. 20. Westminster. Nicholas de Tamworth, from the same port to parts beyond seas, with nine other horsemen (se decimo ad equum), with 100l. for his expenses.

Nov. 21. Westminster. Hugh le Despenser, from the same port to the parts of Prussia (Sprucie), with 3 esquires, 4 yeomen, 8 horses, two letters under the seal of his brother, the lord le Despencer, for receiving a certain sum in the parts beyond seas, and 20l. for his expenses. By the same letter.

Nov. 20. Westminster. William Mounteyn, chaplain, from the same port to parts beyond seas, with a yeoman, 2 horses and 10l. for his expenses.