

1367.

Membrane 16d—cont.

and prays an inquisition of the country, and the petitioners do likewise, and a day has been given to them in the quinzaine of Easter next in Chancery—to make the said verification by the oath of men who are not allied by kinship to any of the said parties, or to the earl or countess of Dessemund.

Oct. 30. Commission to John de Scotherskelf, William de Meryngton, Westminster. Thomas de Spaigne and Thomas de Bretby to make inquisition in the counties of York and Northumberland touching all who have taken wool, hides, wool-fells and other customable merchandise, uncocketed and uncustomed, also corn and other victuals, from the said counties to foreign parts against the king's prohibition, and the value of such goods and of the ship or vessels in which they were loaded; also touching all goods of felons and fugitives forfeited to the king.

By C.

Nov. 5. Mandate to all persons to permit William de Asshethorp, lieutenant Westminster. of Walter Huwet, keeper of the islands of Gernereye, Jereseye, Serk and Aureneye, whom the king has charged to garrison for three years the castle of Gurry in the island of Jereseye with 20 men, and the castles of Cornet and Beauregard in the island of Gernereye with 20 and 10 men respectively, to cross to the said islands with the said men from any port in the southern or western parts, and with 12 horses and as much corn, meat and cider as shall suffice for the said time, provided always that indentures be made between him and the mayor and bailiffs of the port whence he crosses touching the number of men and the quantity of victuals taken by him; the king having received his oath that he will take no more victuals from the realm than shall be needful.

By K.

Nov. 5. Commission to John Bygot, Robert de Boynton, Thomas Maule Westminster. and Thomas de Wythornwyk to make inquisition in the East Riding, co. York, touching the goods late of Patrick de Langedale, Robert de Raventhorp, William 'of the Hill,' William Thomlynson, John de London, chaplain, and others, who were indicted of the death of John Drengé of Driffeld and have made flight on that account.

By K. & C.

MEMBRANE 15d.

Nov. 10. Commission of oyer and terminer to John Moubray, Thomas de Westminster. Ingelby, William de Fyncheden, Robert de Morton, Roger de Fulthorp and Thomas de Humbercolte, on complaint by Margaret, late the wife of Peter de Malo Lacu, 'le quint,' that, whereas she is lady of the town of Doncastre and by reason of her lordship there caused her ministers to take one William de Duffeld, a baker staying in that town, who was convicted in her court of a breach of the assize of bread, and the said ministers would have imprisoned him, as is the custom, and punished him by the judgement of the pillory, Hugh de Elmeshale, Walter de Derfeld, chaplain, Adam Forester, Robert Wodecok, William de Stokebrugge and others, in armed confederacy rescued the said William at Doncastre, hindered her steward from holding court there, and her servants and ministers from collecting toll and other profits arising from her market and fair, dug in her soil, entered and hunted in her free warrens there and at Balby, Exthorp