Membrane 4d—cont.

John de Tautheby, from the port of Dover to the Roman Court, with 3 yeomen, 4 horses, and 100 marks for his expenses.

Gerard Rochestok and Henry Estor, 'chivalers,' from the port of London or Dover to parts beyond seas, with 4 yeomen, 2 horses, 2 greyhounds and 30 marks for their expenses.

Nicholas de Lovaigne, governor of the king's lordship of Ponthieu, from the port of Dover to those parts, with his own money and harness, and 10 men and 10 horses. By letter of secret seal.

Robert Cook of Wilford, from the port of Dover with 2 servants, 3 horses and 10l. for his expenses.

Gerard Rochestok and Henry Estor, 'chivalers,' as above. [Last entry but two.] By letter of secret seal.

John Wolse, esquire, from the ports of Suthampton, Plymuth or Dartmouth to the parts of Aquitaine, to stay there in the company of John Chandos, with 3 men-at-arms, 6 archers, 24 horses, 6 horses bought for the said John Chandos, and 100l. for his expenses. By letter of secret seal.

John Cave, from the port of Dover on a pilgrimage to the city of Rome, with 2 hackneys, each under the price of 40s., a yeoman and 20 marks for his expenses. By the same letter.

William Houloco, word for word as above. By the same letter.

William Frere, yeoman of the lord of Latymer, from the port of London to the parts of Brittany, with a hackney, worth 40s., and 40s. for his expenses. By the same letter.

William Lench and Cecily, his wife, from the port of Dover on a pilgrimage to the city of Rome, with 2 yeomen, 4 hackneys, each under the price of 40s., a letter of exchange of Silvester Nicholas of Lombardie for 40l. and 20l. for their expenses. By letter of secret seal.

Alice Chandeller, from the same port to the city of Rome, with a yeoman, 2 hackneys, as above, a letter of exchange of the same Silvester for 12l., and 20 marks for her expenses. By the same letter.

Adam Stable and Katharine, his wife, as above, with 2 yeomen, 3 hackneys, as above, a letter of the same Silvester for 50l., and 20l. for their expenses. By the same letter.

Nicholas de Lyghtbergh and Otto, his brother, from the port of Dover to parts beyond seas, with 5 horses, 3 yeomen, 40l., a falcon, 4 lannerets, a cup with a cover of silver gilt, a coffer with divers things therein sealed with the seal of the bishop of Durham, and 14 ells of cloth. By the same letter.

Henry Filz Hugh, from the port of Dover to the city of Rome, with an esquire called Thomas Filz Henry, 3 yeomen, 5 horses,