Membrane 22—cont.

March 3. Licence for John Wroth of London to load 1,200 quarters of wheat in the port of Lenn and take them to foreign parts to make his profit thereof.

By p.s.

March 16. Grant, for life or until other order, to Henry Grundy of 1s. daily at Westminster, to the Exchequer.

By K.

March 26. Grant, for life or until other order, to Ralph le Wayte, of 12s. daily at the Exchequer, on surrender of a previous grant, dated 23 June in the king's twenty-ninth year, of 4s. daily of the issues of the county of Southampton.

By p.s.

March 9. John, prior of Henton, of the Carthusian order, going beyond Westminster, seas by the king's licence, has letters nominating Michael Skyllyng and John Bays as his attorneys in England for one year.

David de Wollere, clerk, received the attorneys.

March 12. Pardon to Cecily, wife of John le Swone of Skaresbrek, of the king's suit for having stolen at Skaresbrek 5s. of silver from a chest of Alice Ibotdoghtre, whereof she is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent waiver.

By K.

March 12. Presentation of Master Richard de Pencrich to the church of Iftoley, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the priory of Kenlyworth.

By p.s.

March 12. Grant, for life or until other order, to the king's servant, John Lambourn, of 60s. yearly at the Exchequer.

By p.s.

March 1. Grant, as above, to John Mockyng, 'fauconer,' of 6d. daily at the Exchequer.

The like to the following of the sums named:

John Vache, 'fauconer,' 6d.
William Fower, 'fauconer,' 6d.
Geoffrey Waryn, 'fauconer,' 6d.

By K.

March 26. Mandate to all sheriffs and others to provide carriage for the servants of the prince of Aquitaine and Wales deputed by him to carry his harness, victuals and other goods from the ports at which he may chance to touch; he being about to return to England from the parts of Aquitaine at the king's order, and having prayed the king to make such order for the said carriage. [Fœdera.]

By K.

MEMBRANE 21.

Feb. 21. Licence, for 10 marks paid by the mayor, aldermen and commonalty of London, for Brother John Malberthorp, guardian of the house of the Friars Minors in that city, and the convent thereof, to grant them a plot of land of their soil on the south of their church within the gate of Neugate, containing in length, from the house held by Walter atte Hyde pertaining to London Bridge towards the east as far as a buttress standing at the south door of the said church on the west