MEMBRANE 15.

Oct. 16. Inspeccimus and confirmation of an indenture, dated the Sunday before St. Thomas the Apostle in the king’s forty-first year, whereby Stephen de Hoo and William de Stokebery, bailiffs of Canterbury, having entered on the tenements late of William Boteler of Canterbury in the parish of St. Andrew, Canterbury, by virtue of a clause in his will, by which he bequeathed his said tenements to Thomas, his son and heir, and the heirs of his body, on condition that they should find a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the church of St. Andrew and a torch burning there at the time of masses,—on the failure of which condition the nearest heirs successively, and then the bailiffs of Canterbury, were to have power to enter therein,—grant the said tenements to Simon de Burgh in fee so that he fulfill the conditions laid down in the said will and find another chaplain to celebrate in that church as many masses as were omitted in the time of a late cessation of the said chantry by reason of the death of the said Thomas without heir of his body; for which grant the said Simon has paid the said bailiffs 100 marks sterling to distribute for the souls of the said William and his benefactors. By p.s.

Nov. 15. Pardon to John de Par, chaplain, of his trespass in acquiring by provision without the realm the church of Weryngton, of the patronage of John, duke of Lancaster, which acquisition he confessed before the Council, whereupon he was adjudged and committed to the Marshalsea prison, there to stay at the king’s will,—and also of the execution of the said judgement and the penalty limited by the statute in case of such acquisition. By p.s.

Nov. 15. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by the king’s clerk, David de Wellore, of the following lands &c., which are of the annual value, beyond the rent below-mentioned, of 47s. 8d., as appears by inquisitions taken by John de Scotherskelf, escheator in the county of York:

10 messuages, 2 gardens, 8½ acres of land, 1¼ acre of meadow and 36s. 8d. of rent in Rypon to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of St. Andrew in the collegiate church of Rypon, and

2 messuages in Rypon to the chapter of the church of Rypon towards the upkeep of the fabric of that church. By p.s.
