

1369.

Membrane 1—cont.

Jan. 22. Licence, for 44s. 4d. paid to the king by William de Morton, clerk, Westminster. for the alienation in mortmain by him of a messuage and 12 acres of land in Pershore and Walcote, co. Worcester, to two chaplains to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of the chapel sometime ordained by Adam de Herewynton in the church of Pershore for the safe estate of Thomas, earl of Warwick, and Katharine, his wife, and of John de Goderyngton, chaplain, during their lives, and for their souls after their death, and for the souls of William de Goderyngton, father, and Agnes, mother, of the said John.

Jan. 20. Pardon, at the request of William de Latymer, the king's steward, Westminster. to William de Farmanby, the younger, of the king's suit for the theft of 2 oxen and 2 cows, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

Jan. 23. Commission to the abbot of Quarre, John de Insula, knight, Theobald de Gorges, Thomas de Langeford and John filz Eustace, constable Westminster. of the castle of Carresbrok in the Isle of Wight, in view of some rumours which the king has newly heard from foreign parts, to guard the said island, array and try all the defensible men thereof, each according to his condition, provide them with fitting arms, put them in thousands, hundreds and twenties, and make proclamation that all persons having lands and rents in the said island, and not staying there, betake themselves thither with all speed for the defence of their lands, and stay there with their whole household, not absenting themselves therefrom under pain of forfeiture of their said lands, and that all places by the sea in the said island where ships can put in be made secure against incursions of the enemy and be fortified and strengthened with walls and dykes; and to arrest all contrariants and commit them to prison until further order. By K. & C.

Feb. 15. Alexander de Nevill, clerk, going beyond seas by the king's licence, Westminster. has letters nominating Henry de Percy and William Latymer as his attorneys in England for one year.

David de Wollore received the attorneys.

The same Alexander has other letters nominating Roger de Fulthorp and William de Nafferton as his attorneys as above.

The same David received the attorneys.

The same Alexander has other letters nominating John de Nevill and Robert de Nevill as his attorneys as above.

The same David received the attorneys.

Jan. 4. Acknowledgment of the receipt in the king's chamber by the hands Westminster. of William Latymer from the king's son, John, duke of Brittany, of 12,000 gold franks, weighing by the weight of the Tower of London 131l. 17s. 10d., which come to 1,928l. 18s. sterling, in part payment of the sums in which the duke is held to the king. [Fædera.] By p.s.

1368.

MEMBRANE 30d.

June 3. Commission of oyer and terminer to John Knyvet, Robert de Thorpe Westminster. and Thomas de Lodelowe touching all treasons, felonies, trespasses, conspiracies, oppressions, extortions, falsities, champerties, forstalleries