

1369.

Membrane 19d—cont.

of the Common Bench in Ireland, touching the manor of Rathgell, co. Limerick, word for word as in the commission to Thomas, bishop of Lismore and Waterford, and others, dated 1 November, 41 Edward III. (See p. 59.)

1368.

MEMBRANE 18d.

Nov. 8. Commission of oyer and terminer to John Knyvet, Thomas de Westminster. Lodelowe, Andrew Peverel, Robert Bilknap, Roger de Asshebournham and John Weyvill touching the persons who broke the park of Richard, earl of Arundell, at Estden, while the earl was in the king's special protection and attendant on the king's business, entered his free warren there and at Westden and Sengelton, co. Sussex, hunted therein without licence, and took away deer from the park, and hares, conies, pheasants and partridges from the warrens. By C.

Nov. 8. Commission to Walter Huwet, keeper of the islands of Gerneseye, Westminster. Gereseye, Serk and Aurneye, or his lieutenants,—on information that some malicious persons, intending to destroy the king and his people in those islands by treacherous schemes, have summoned many belonging to the said islands to appear in Normandy and other parts outside the islands in courts Christian and lay to answer upon matters which pertain to the king's court within the said islands, and not elsewhere, and have wounded, imprisoned and ill-treated many of them, and kept them in prisons of divers lords there until they made fine with them at their will,—to make public proclamation in the said islands that no one of the said islands or elsewhere summon or cite any belonging to those islands to appear without the islands before judges secular or ecclesiastic upon any things which should be determined by the king's court within the said islands, and to punish as rebels, disheritors of the king's crown and destroyers of his people, all whom they shall find contrariant.

Nov. 10. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas de Ingelby, Godfrey Westminster. Foljaumbe, William Croiser, Richard Chamberleyn, William de Haldenby and John Curteys of Wymyngton, on complaint by John, duke of Lancaster, that John le Eir, the younger, John Reyner, Henry de Northampton, John Moor of Tychemersh, and others, took away his goods found at Tychemersh co. Northampton, and assaulted and wounded his men and servants there. By K.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Nov. 12. Commission to William de Fyncheden, Gerard Salvan, John Bygote, Westminster. Thomas Mauley, Roger de Fulthorp and William de Meryngton to make inquisition in the counties of York and Lincoln touching oppressions, damages, grievances, falsities and excesses perpetrated by Patrick de Langedale by colour of a commission to him and others to enquire touching felonies and trespasses in those counties. By C.

Nov. 16. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas de Ingelby, William de Westminster. Fyncheden, William Croiser, Godfrey Foljaumbe, Richard Chamberleyn, William de Haldenby and John Curteys of Wymyngton, on information that John le Eir, the younger, John Reyner, Henry de Northampton, John Moor of Tychemersh, and others, took away