1369.

March 10. Grant to the bailiffs and good men of Lodelowe of murage for Westminster, twelve years, in aid of the repair of the walls and gates of their town. For 5 marks paid in the hanaper.

March 6. Grant for life to the king's serjeant William de la Garderobe, porter Westminster, of the king's wardrobe in the Tower of London, of the keeping of the king's lions in the said Tower, as John Styrop, deceased, had of the king's grant. By p.s.

Vacated because otherwise below.

March 8. John de Hastyngges, earl of Pembroke, staying in England, has Westminster, letters nominating John Wogan and Thomas Thelwal, clerk, as his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

David de Wollore received the attorneys.

He has other letters nominating Walter le Reve, clerk, and Richard Whittey, as above. The said David &c.

March 12. Simon de Charwelton, clerk, going to Ireland on the king's service Westminster, in the company of William de Wyndesore, the king's lieutenant in that land, has letters nominating Simon Hereward, chaplain, and John de Denton as his attorneys in England for one year.

David de Wollore received the attorneys.

March 17. Cecily late the wife of John de Bohun of Midhurst, 'chivaler,' staying Westminster, in England, has letters nominating John de Bodyton as her attorney in Ireland for three years. The chancellor received the attorney.

March 19. Presentation of John Stanpet to two parts of the church of Attilburgh, Rotherhithe, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king's gift by reason of his keeping of the land and heir of Costantine de Clifton, who held in chief. By p.s.

March 6. Grant for life to the king's serjeant William de la Garderobe, yeoman Westminster, of the king's armour in the Tower of London, of the keeping of the lions there (as above with 'yeoman of the armour' substituted for 'porter of the wardrobe,' and 'office of the armour' for 'office of the wardrobe'). By p.s.

March 23. Licence, for one year, for Walter de Derby, merchant of Bristol, Westminster, to take from Bristol and neighbouring ports to the parts of La Groyne in Spain, in his newly-built ship called la Gracedieu of Bristol, as many pilgrims as the ship can conveniently carry, and bring back from there victuals and other merchandise; provided that the ship be not arrested for the king's service and that no horses, gold or silver, bows, arrows or other armour, or anything prejudicial to the king and crown pass over in the ship. By C.

Membrane 24.

March 16. Whereas the manors of Boulewas and Isenbrugge and the advowson Westminster of the church of the first-named manor, held in chief, had been taken into the king's hand because of an alienation made thereof by John son of John de Boulewas, knight (militis), to Thomas Cotes, without his licence, and while they were in his hand, the said John son of John intruded himself into them over the king's seisin and Thomas remitted all right therein to him, without the king's licence, whereby the manors and advowson have been seized again into the king's hand, and the