John de Denford.

William de Grantham

- May 3. Pardon to John de Overe of Gumecestre of the king's suit for the death of John Chaloner of Melbourn; as the king has learned by the record of Roger de Meres and John de Fencotes, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of the castle of Huntyngdon, that he killed him in self-defence.
Westminster.
- May 8. Grant in fee to Walter Huwet of those lands in the island of Gereseye which Ralph Lemperere and William Payn lately bought from Philip Barentyn and of which the retraite (retractum) pertains to the king according to the manner and custom of that country because Walter in the king's name offered to pay Philip as much for the lands as Ralph and William paid him for the same within one year of the time when the lands were put up for sale, no one of the blood of the said Philip suing for the purchase of the lands within the year, whereby the lands have fallen to the king by reason of the retraite. Grant to him also of licence to grant the lands in fee to whomsoever he will.
Westminster. By p.s.
- May 6. In consideration of John de Moubray, late lord of the isle of Axiholm, having promised by word of mouth to his servant John de Dodenill, who served him long and was with him in the parts of Costantynople at the time of his death, the keeping of the warren pertaining to the manor of Hovyngham, co. York, for life, taking 2*d.* a day for his wages out of the issues of the manor, as has been testified to the king by men of repute, and of this promise not having taken effect in the lifetime of the first named, the king has granted to the said John Dodenill the keeping of the said warren, now in his hand with the manor on account of the death of the said John de Moubray and the nonage of his heir, to hold for such time as he bear himself well in the office during the said nonage, taking 2*d.* a day for his wages by the hands of the keeper or bailiff of the manor.
